A WILD SUMMER

Ahh! Summer! Movies, beaches, camps, thunderstorms, and sailboat rides. Campfires, concerts, parties, fireworks under starry skies. Summer!! One to remember in so many ways.

What was the best part of your summer? Some said the parties, waterskiing or just relaxing. Others said the 4th of July, working, boating, or playing sports. Traveling and meeting new people was a big part of almost everyone's summer. Can-Amera games took place in August, which involved many Eisenhower students.

What was the worst part of the summer of '86? Senior Julie Zolinski said "coming home from Higgins Lake and being grounded for six weeks". Senior Missy Cross said "getting up by a bell for work just after going to sleep". Others said saying goodbye to their summer love. The worst part for Dave Shuler was "coming back to school."

Bottom right: "No mom doesn't know where we are!" says seniors Karleen DeMaet, Ted Davis, Kathy Bourcier, Shawn Doyle, Carolyn Mitchell, Andy Charlton, John Wilson and Missy Cross. # SPIRIT WEEK

Once again, another fun filled spirit week at IKE rolled around. Pep Club took on the responsibility to prepare for the week. IKE students participated in the spirit week by dressing up on inside/out day, college sweatshirt day, Ft. Lauderdale day, and of course the traditional green and white day. Seniors seemed to love Ft. Lauderdale day the best as they tossed a beach ball around during lunch hours. Thursday during spirit week, each class decorated a section in the student center as to what spirit meant to them. For the fourth consecutive year, the Class of '87, the Pink Panther Pals, was victorious in this competition. On Friday, members of the Pep Club gathered at the "IKE breakfast place," The Texan, to start off the final day of spirit week. The IKE football team was fired up to fight MacArthur and helped promote spirit by starting "The Wave." All in all, everyone had a great time during spirit week, despite the fact we lost a tough game to MacArthur 6-0.

WE'VE ONLY

One of the first major events of the 1986-1987 school year was Homecoming '86'. Arrangements for this special occasion began early in September as the 1986 Homecoming Court was elected by the junior and senior classes. The honored members were: Karleen DeMaet, Kelly Federico, Kala Karu, Suzie Kurtz, Bridget McLaughlin, Carolyn Mitchell, Shanna Prill, Molly Ward, and Julie Zolinski.

Much preparation went into making the festivity an extraordinary one. Ike's Pep Club dedicated much time to planning the event. The marching band, football team, pom pon squads, and cheerleading squads also worked very hard to spark the occasion.

Spirit was rising as the Homecoming week began. Tickets were sold Monday for the Saturday night dance. The traditional Homecoming Court assembly took place Wednesday morning in the gymnasium. The candidates were presented with their escorts as Mr. Marvin talked of their high school achievements. Thursday, the entire student body was included on voting for the Homecoming Queen. Enthusiasm and fervence filled the air Friday as everyone was anxious for the evening to come.

During halftime of the varsity football game in which we hosted Mt. Pleasant, the Homecoming Court was formally presented once again. This time they were escorted by their fathers. Ann Luplow proudly crowned the 1986 Homecoming Queen, Kala Karu. At the end of the game, our football team smiled in victory as they toppled the Oilers, 34 to 18.

To add that special touch, the student center was beautifully decorated Saturday morning for the dance taking place that evening. Couples danced from 9:00 p.m. until 1:00 a.m. to bring this memorable week to an end, even though we've only just begun.

FIRE!!!

It didn't seem like much, at first. The announcement came on the radio, but most of us slept through it. After all, it was Thanskgiving vacation. Someone had set a fire in the school, a few rooms were burned in the English department, and we could sleep in a few more mornings while the custodians cleaned up the mess. With any luck, some of those strange novels went up in smoke with all the nouns and verbs. It seemed to fit the way the year had been going. After all, we had already missed a week because of the "flood of the century", and the school had been in the news twice in the past week because of burglaries. So what's a little fire?

But it wasn't a little fire. The entire English pod had been destroyed. The offices, student center, academic areas, and counseling center were ruled unsafe and were lost to us. The electives lounge had been torched and the entire electives area suffered smoke damage.

They chased us out! The building was sealed, our locker contents were returned to us in garbage bags, and we waited to hear when we would be back.

But we didn't go back. The workers left, the electricity was turned off, and the building just sat and waited . . . while we sat and waited. It took some of us longer than others to realize that we would probably not be back for a long time . . . maybe not this year . . . maybe not ever. Old habits, like owning locker space and passing the entire student body in the commons, would have to be broken. Old concepts, like "home game" and "Ike dance" would have to be forgotten. Old expectations like spending our senior year at Eisenhower and graduating in the gym would have to be rethought.

The worst part was not knowing.

We Survived And Began Anew

The first day at MacArthur left us feeling very alone. Going into their gym for our assembly didn't seem right. As always, there were reporters asking us how we felt. We felt anger and alienation.

It took a couple of weeks to become familiar with their campus. We had to remember blue, yellow and orange doors. At times we would forget and call the kiva the student center. Although we know our way around it still wasn't home.

As time went on backpacks began to rip and walking to class was colder. We became experts at eating at weird times. We even became used to doors and walls.

The Board of Education said it wanted to tell us what had happened at Eisenhower since we left. They only told us what we already knew — we probably wouldn't go back. Finally, we accepted the fact that we're here for the rest of the year. But it will never be home.

What a year! We had floods. We had fire. Luckily we still had our principals to lead us. In addition to their normal duties, they had to supervise the move to another high school, reschedule the student body, manage the transition to the new schedule, keep staff and student morale up, and just when the job seemed to be finished, they had to plan and supervise the move back. Of course, we were only moving back to two-thirds of our former facility, so they had to create classroom out of closets, and convince us all that it was really a good deal. They did their job well, because the student body was excited when at last it was time to return.

After being secretary in the counseling area for a year and a half, Mrs Elaine Asmus retired in January. Replacing her was Mrs Pauline Hardy who quickly became accustomed to the routine at Eisenhower. Our counselors, Mrs Lynda Slaggert, Mr William Seeley, and Mr Joe Mikolaczak continued to consistently "be there" when we needed them, especially when we needed a little extra help adjusting to MacArthur.

Mrs Kathryn Sedwick joined Ms Marilyn Ludgin in the library this year. Between the two of them, they kept the library in tip-top shape and helped us find materials when we needed them.

A special thanks to our whole custodial staff who helped maintain our school before the fire, and spent countless hours preparing for our return from DM.

NHS Includes Juniors

To be a member of the National Honor Society you not only need a high grade point average, but you also must be involved in the community and have athletic ability or scholastic involvement as well.

In previous years the National Honor Society was strictly a senior organization. Members were inducted into the NHS at the end of the junior year. This year, though, junior were allowed to be a part of NHS if they held the qualifications.

In October the NHS held its annual Halloween party for Saginaw Township children, preschool to third grade. In December the National Honor Society helped the needy in Saginaw by participating in Operation Christmas which provided local needy families with Christmas dinners.

Officers for NHS were Edmund Bermudez, president; Soni Mithani, Vice-President; Molly Ward, secretary; and Mary Byrne, treasurer. The club's advisors were Mrs Jane Wregglesworth and Mrs Joyce DeWolf-Ott.

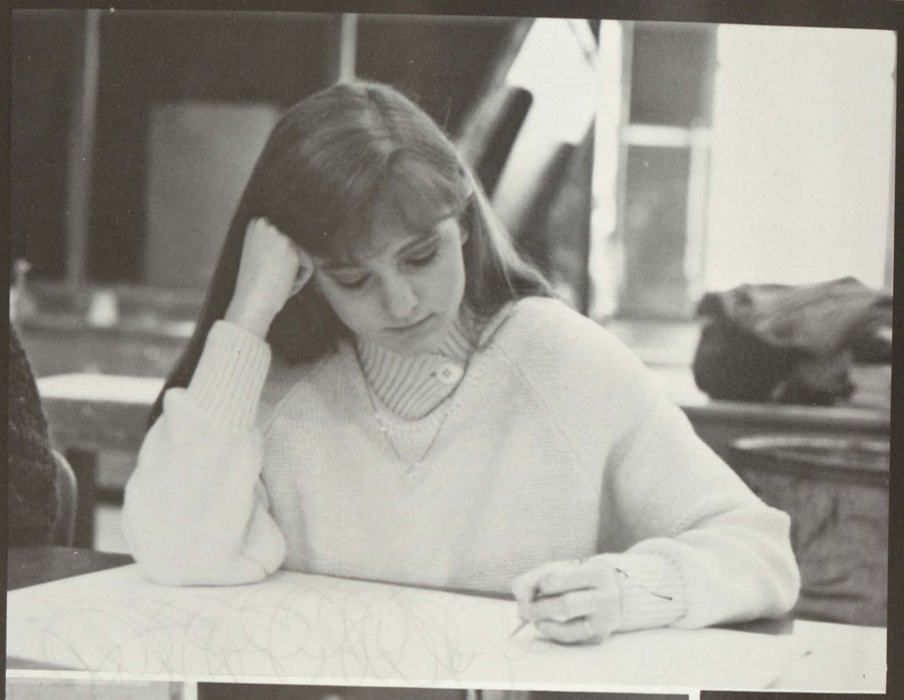
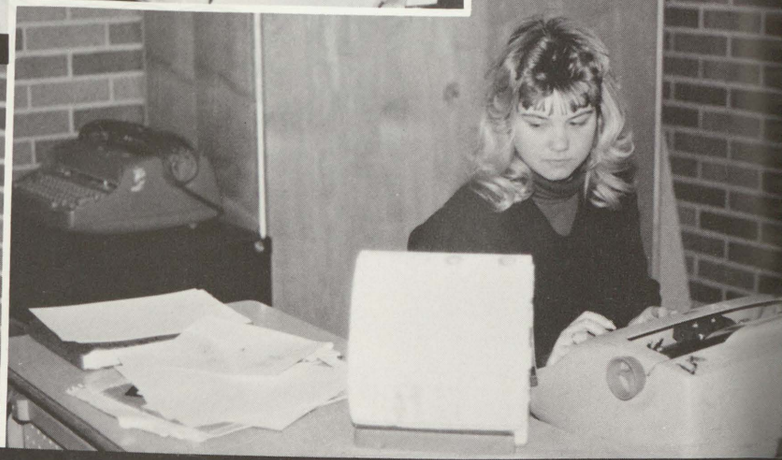
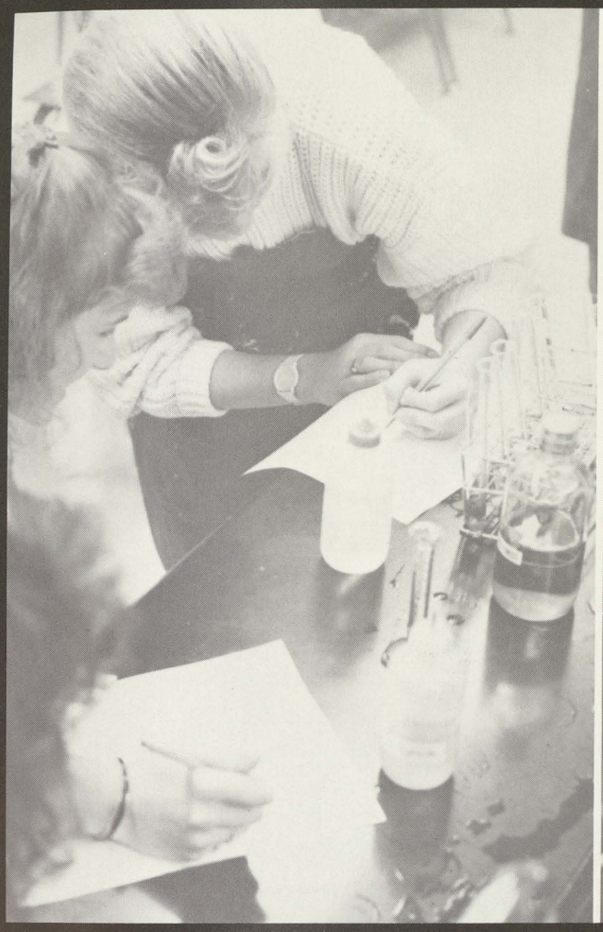
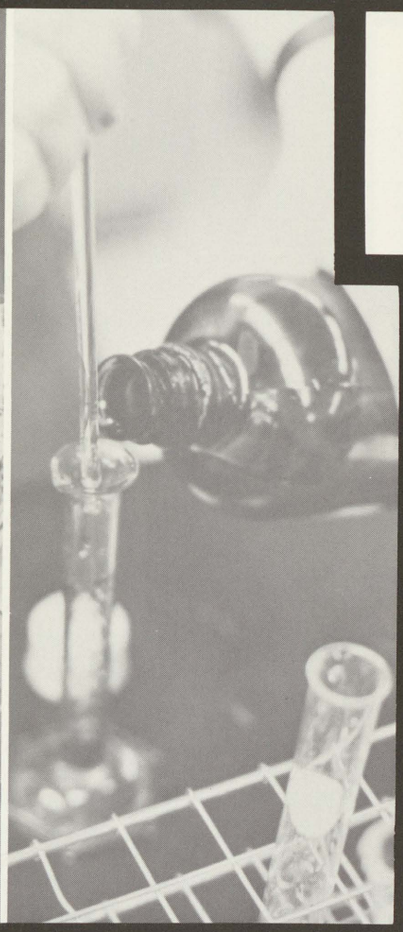
The ART classes, taught by Mr. Walt Nagel, were busy this year producing award winning ARTWORK. The students participated in a National Scholastic Exhibit and brought Eisenhower many AWARDS. Jon Dillman received a Gold Key and was a Blue Ribbon finalist; Todd Creely, Greg Schultz, and Sarah Johnson each received a Gold Key. Jennifer Sweeting received a Gold Key, a Hallmark nomination, and was a Blue Ribbon Finalist. The Blue Ribbon finalist work was sent to the National Competition in New York. From the Regional Exhibit, five objects were chosen as Hallmark nominees.



Students learned many skills in the BUSINESS area this year. Mr. BOSWELL and Mr. Wienicke taught students BASIC typing skills. Mrs. BOTTKE was the Shorthand and Office Machines teacher. Some of us had "The Big Fella" Mr. Fenton for Bookkeeping. Mrs. Peterson was helpful to those who weren't exactly computer wizards.

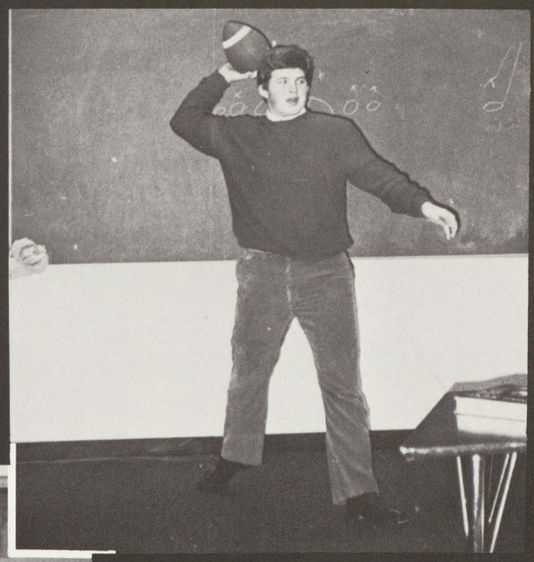




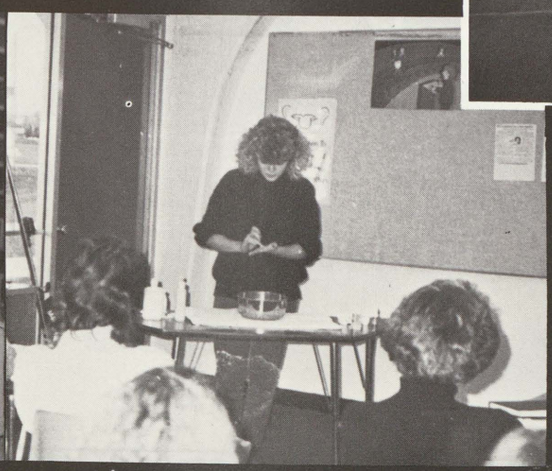


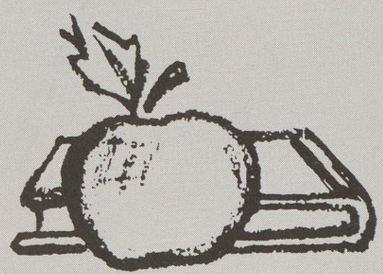
COMMUNICATIONS was a CLASS that we all have taken sometime during our years at Ike. Mr. Karam and Miss Sowle taught this required CLASS, in which we had to perform a variety of speeches in front of our CLASSMATES: dramatic, persuasive, narrative, and the most exciting, demonstration speeches. Some of us were really CREATIVE and showed the CLASS everything from how to wax skis, to how to CLEAN CONTACT lenses.

All of us were DEDICATED to something this year. Some were DEVOTED to our studies, spending DOZENS of hours with our noses buried in our books. There were also some of us who were easily DISTRACTED from our daily work, and there were also a few who DIDN'T know the DEFINITION of the word "DEDICATION" until it came to Friday night parties.



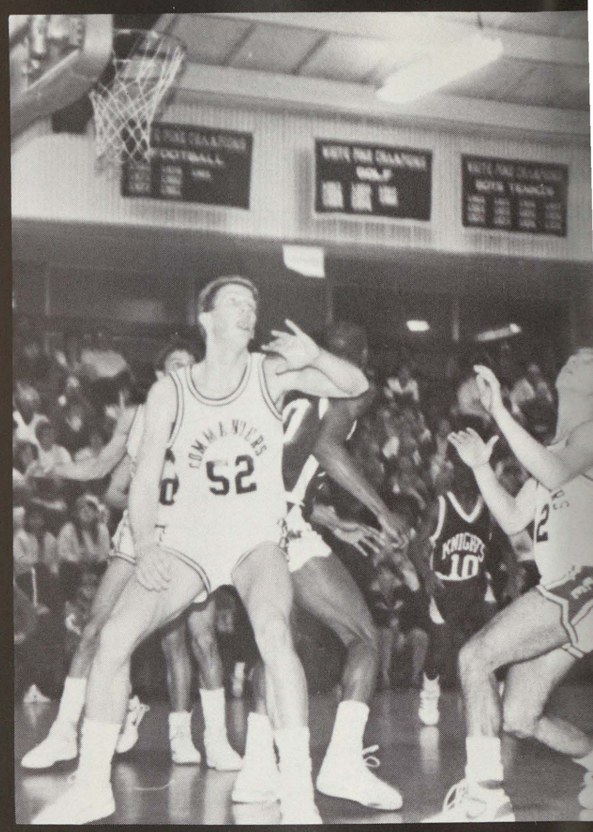
Test tubes and potions were part of the devotions in the wonderful class of chemistry. It was a difficult class that's very hard to pass, but you learned many things about it. Benjamin, Stocker, and Douglass too were the teachers who taught you the things that are new. Chemistry, the challenge that a scientist once knew, who knows, the challenge might also be for you.

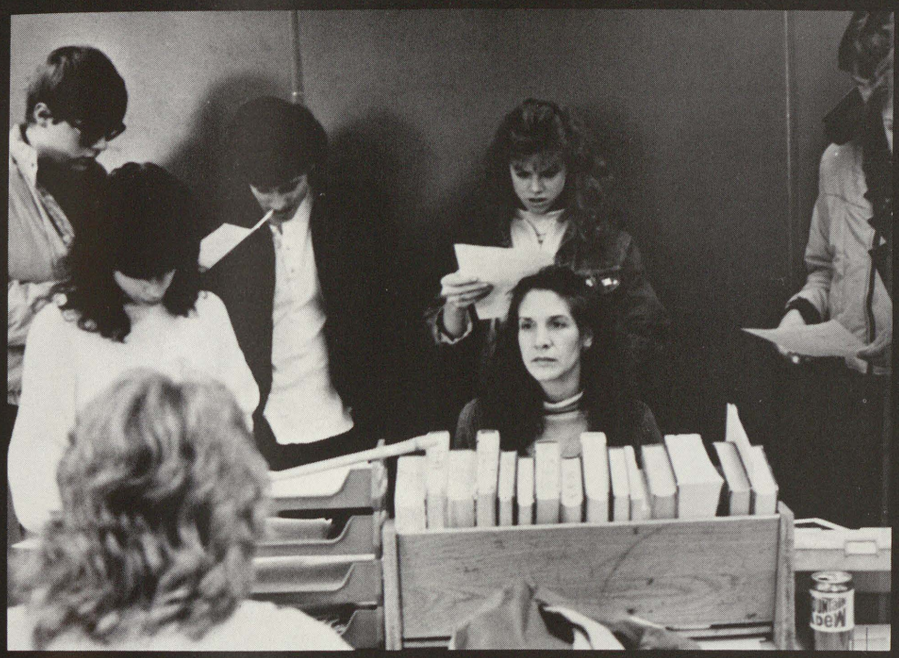


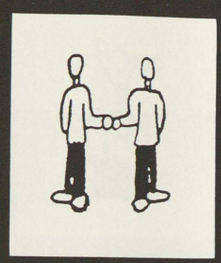


EXTRA-CURRICULAR activities filled the hours after school for some EXTRA-SPECIAL people who wanted to be involved . . . ENGLISH, a required class, gave EVERYONE ENDLESS headaches while they tried to punctuate, write papers and study grammar EFFECTIVELY . . . In Mr. Teal's ECONOMICS class, students designed a Monopoly board and sold spaces on the board to businesses in the community. The game was appropriately named Saginawopoly.

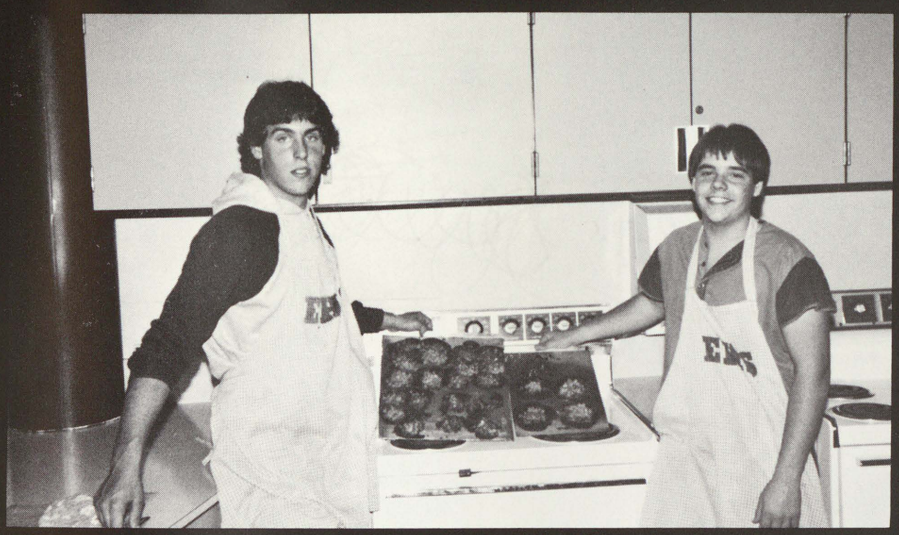
Fridays were days that students and teachers looked FORWARD to . It was the last day of the FRETFUL school week. We were on a weekend vacation. FRIDAYS sure did bring some FANTASTIC things. To be FRANK, pep assemblies, football and basketball games, dances, parties, Friday night videos and Friday night "FEASTS" at FAST-FOOD restaurants. We can't FORGET that some FRIDAYS brought us chapter tests, and papers that were due. Each FRIDAY this year was a FANTASTIC FANFARE.



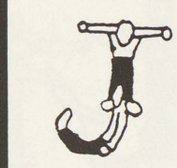




GOLLY, my GRADES! My GRADES are so bad, what do I say to my Mom and my Dad? This phrase was said most often in school, but bad grades didn't mean that you were a fool. Don't fret, study harder, and you soon will see just how easy getting an A can be. Give up the T.V., the phone and your date. Grab a pen, abd your booksw, all the things that you hate. After studying and studying it will finally pay off for in Chemistry you finally received a B.

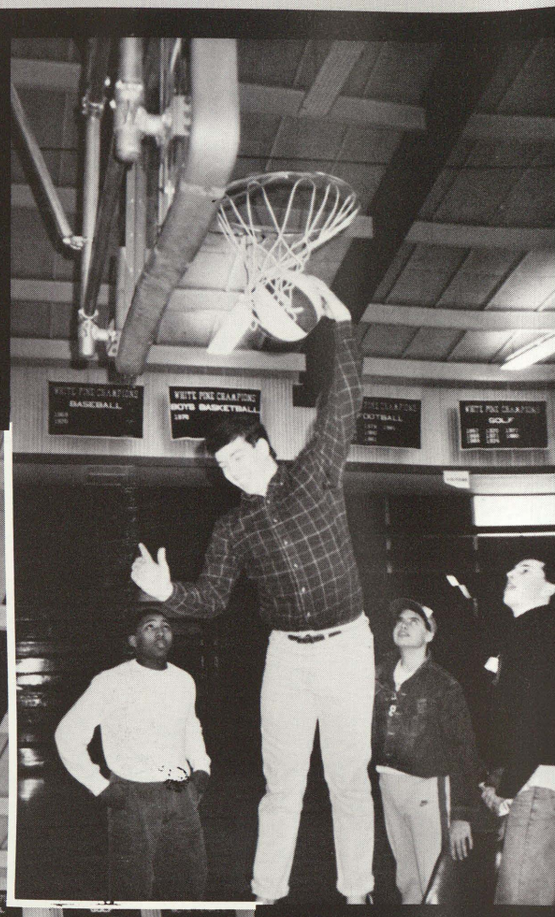


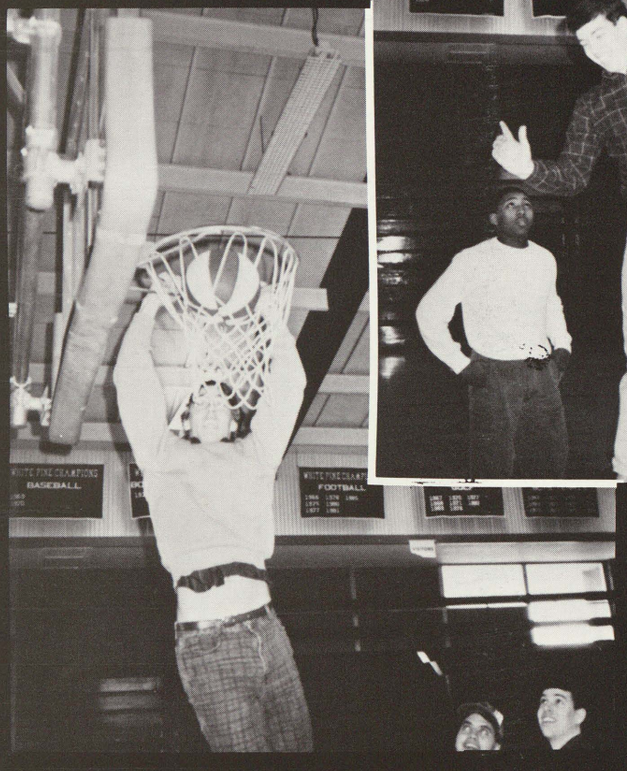
Another required class for Ike students was HEALTH class, taught by Lou Dulac and Tom Pugh. Cardio-pulminary respiration (CPR) was an important part of the class, as well as lessons about alcohol and drug abuse. Missing this year was instructor John Musulin (Muzz) who left Eisenhower to teach at White Pine Middle School. We can be sure that somewhere HE is drilling and yelling and implanting important information permanently in young minds.

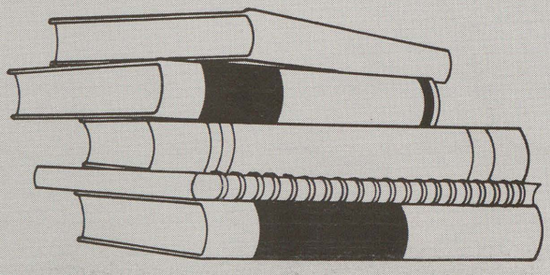


I knew I'd do well, but not that well," said senior Mark Dahley upon learning that he had been named an accredited student because of his score on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test. That score placed Dahley in the top 50,000 students taking the test. "People tell me it's a big deal. That's pretty awesome." More than one million students take the PSAT.

"I've never gotten really good grades", Dahley said. "To be on that level is a new experience." He continued, "Grades don't reflect that score. Grades are INTELLIGENCE and discipline, and the test really has no discipline INVOLVED." He concluded, "I may be a little bit lazy."

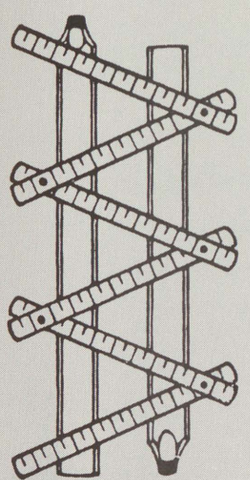


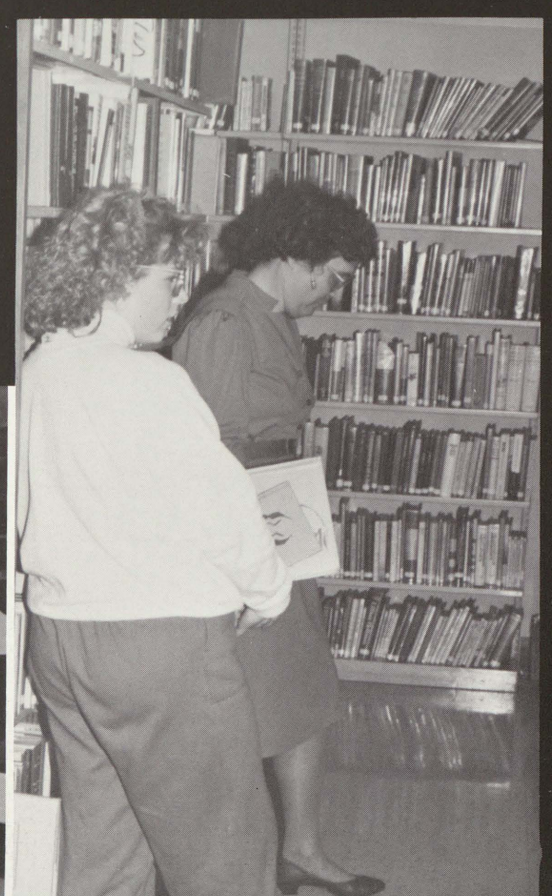




Some new to the Ike basketball fans this year was JAMMING at the basketball games. Although the JAMS weren't always successful, it was a big thrill for those of us who were at the games.

KIVA is an Indian word for sunken room. MacArthur's KIVA, which is neither Indian nor sunken, serves as its cafeteria, and was temporary headquarters for 1200 displaced stomachs. KIVA KITCHEN Crews helped Ike students adjust. We had everything from Pizzas to chicken noodle soup. The KIVA was also used for cheerleader and pom pon practice, teacher meetings, and dances.

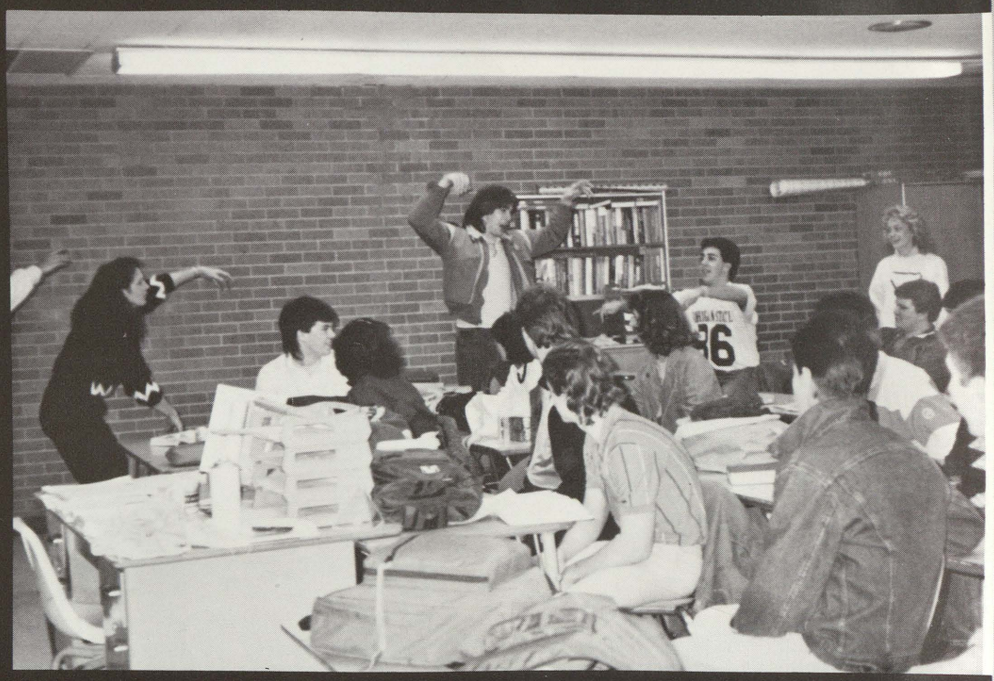




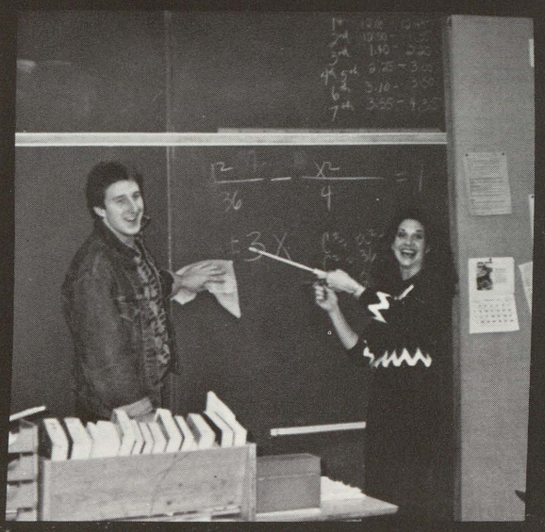
LUNCH hour played a big part in our school day. Where else could we LEAN back and relax for a while, or LAUGH with friends? LUNCH hour was LOST during the split schedule, and the LACK of time to LINGER felt. We still found plenty of time to talk, though . . . . Some students chose to speak in other LANGUAGES, and could choose from French, Spanish, German, or even LATIN. Mrs. LAURIE Becker joined the LANGUAGE staff as a teacher of German.

We were LUCKY that our LIBRARY was not damaged during the fire. The LIBRARY continued to get new things throughout the year. Our LIBRARIANS were kept busy by transferring numerous things from Eisenhower to MacArthur. Some files were brought over as well as the LAMINATING machine. The move affected everyone. We still couldn't be LOUD in the LIBRARY, but we could LET LOOSE in the LUNCHROOM. We used to hang rail or LOUNGE in the student center, but then we moved to the KIVA to relax and we had to adjust to hanging "pond".

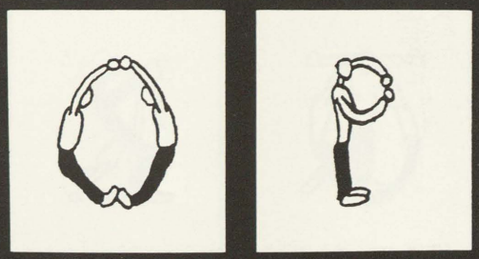
MOST students hated not only MONDAYS but MONDAY MORNINGS also. We hated them not only because we had to return to our classrooms, but also because we had to start working agian. One class that we alwaye had homework in was MATH. A few well known MOTIVATORS were MR. MORGAN, MR.Dana, MR. Decker, MR. Swartzendruber, and MRS. Dunham. There was a new MATHEMATICS teacher added to our staff this year, MR. Loessel, who came from Chippewa MIDDLE school. MacARTHUR took the place of our school while IKE was being repaired. We MISSED IKE, but MADE the best of what we had.

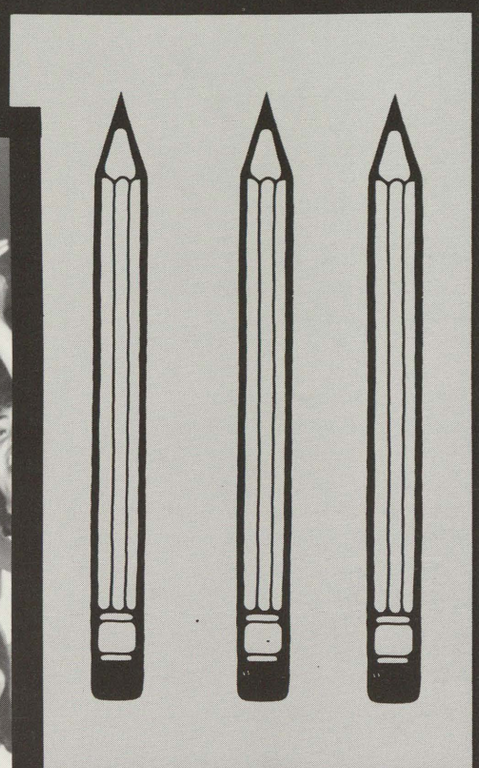


"NATIONALS" was the goal that most students in such activities as Forensics and NATIONAL History Day reached for. Ike cheerleaders made it to NATIONALS in Orlando, Florida . . . In the NEWS this year was President Ronald Reagan's Iranian scandal, the NEW tax laws and NUCLEAR disarmament . . . or at least the failure to disarm. Notes were what was written for the band this year, as they went to Ann Arbor and also participated in the Saginaw Pride Parade.

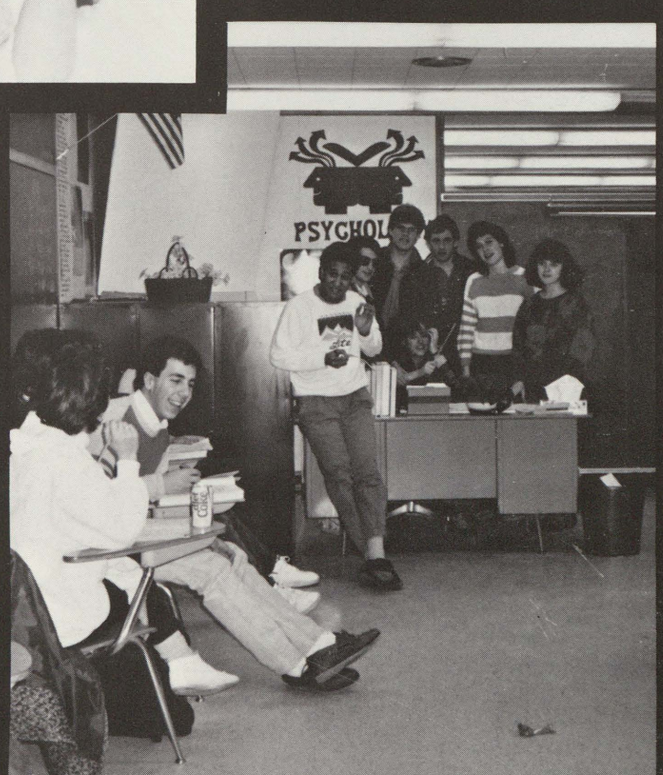


OUTSTANDING was the name for our basketball team this year. We won most of OUR games, and there was much school spirit at the games, promoted by the OUTRAGEOUS bleacher creatures. OUTRAGEOUS was also the theme of our yearbook. ORIGINAL was the art work produced by publications staffers Jennifer Sweeting and Martin Thompson.

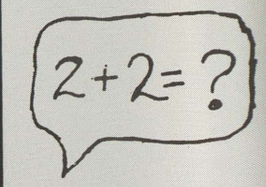




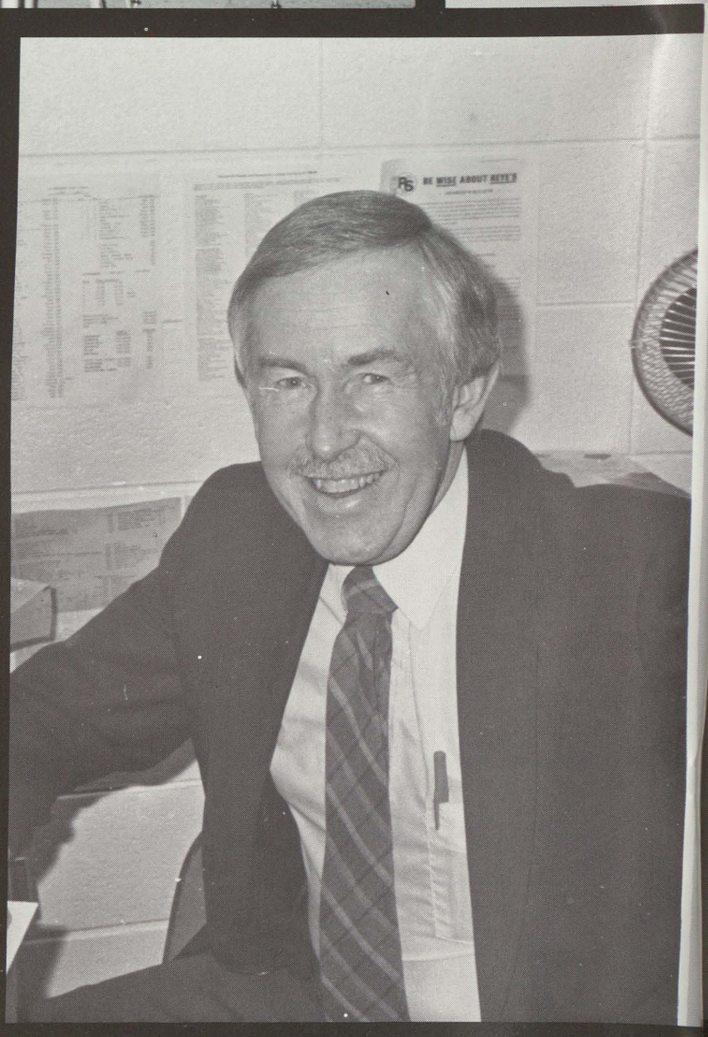
PRACTICE and PATIENCE was what it took to be PERFECT in school. To be the section leader in band, to get a 100% on a quiz in PHYSICS or to win the 50 yard dash PRACTICALLY took PERFECTION. PROGRAMMING was a class that some of us took who were adept at using computers . . . PSYCHOLOGY helped us to understand ourselves and others better. And of course PROUD PARENTS snapping endless PICTURES PRIOR to PROM helped us PRESERVE the memories of PRIM and PROPER (and sometimes POMPOUS) PEOPLE together on a PERPETUAL PARTY.



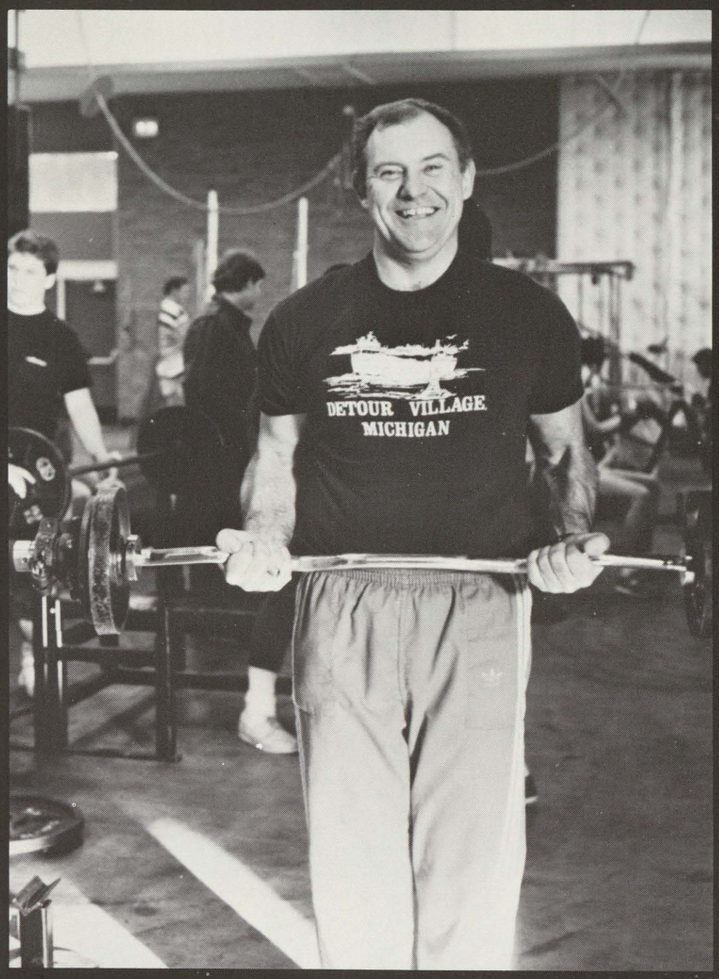
Quizzes weren't new to any student at Eisenhower. However, a QUIZ could have seemed new to someone if it was a surprise or pop QUIZ. Most of us have all been through the painful agony of trying to pass a pop QUIZ that 24 out of 25 of us didn't study for. A notorious pop QUIZZER was Miss Elizabeth Spaulding, who usually gave her students a QUIZ every day to make sure that they completed their assignments.



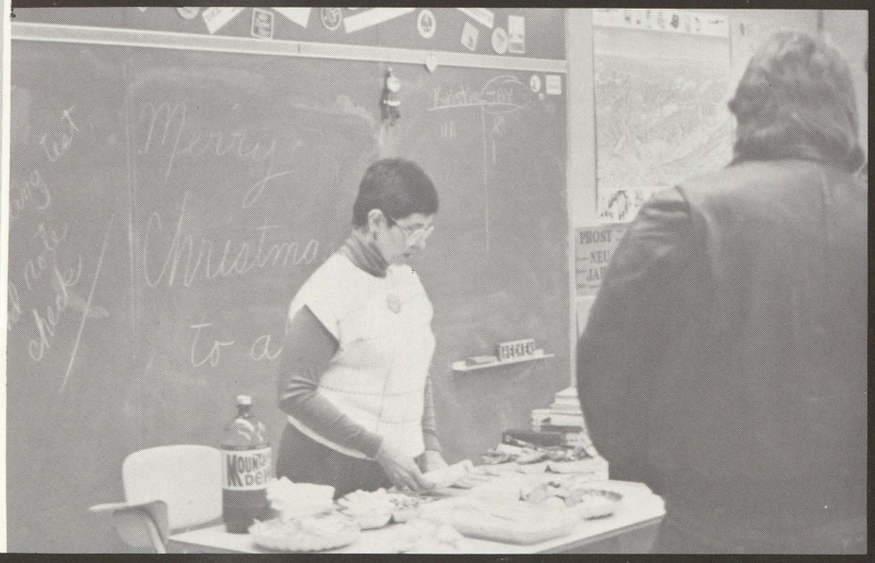
READING was what it took to be successful in our classes . . . After we RECEIVED RESULTS from our quizzes we either REALIZED that we better hit the books, or we could REJOICE over our 100% . . . Over the summer, we took drivers training class and had to pass RANGE, ROADWORK, and we had to READ our instruction manuals . . . This year there were two people from Eisenhower who RETIRED. Mrs. Elaine Asmus RETIRED in January, after working in the counseling office for 2 years. Some of us got to know her pretty well during that time, especially those of us that had to make sure our college applications got out on time. Another person in the counseling office that some of us know well was Mr. William Seeley, who RETIRED in June. Mr. Seeley was a counselor at IKE for 16 years.

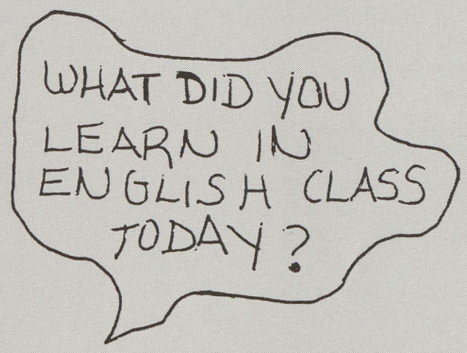


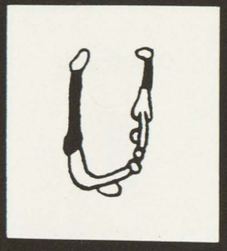
SCIENCE was a class that made SOME of us SICK to our STOMACHS.. We had to dissect frogs in Biology I and pigs in Bio II ... SOCIAL STUDIES was required, but we SURVIVED and most of us passed the classes — World History, U.S. Government and U.S. History ... There was a SOCIOLOGY class taught by Mr. Jerry Dalek, that dealt with relations between people ... Most of us had SOME SORT of physical education class while we were at Ike. It didn't matter if it was freshman P.E., team P.E. or conditioning; we SURE worked up a SWEAT.



TERRIBLE was the word for some of our TESTS THIS year. TEACHERS played an important role at school, for without them, we wouldn't have had school. TIME was what we lacked when it came TIME for exams. Many of us found THIS out. Because of shorter class TIMES at Douglas MacArthur, TEACHERS didn't have the TIME THEY needed to review and lecture. The TIMES THAT most of us lived for were the week ends which were always TERRIFIC!.







V is for vehicles in the vicious parking lot, and for victims of scrunches and dents they got.
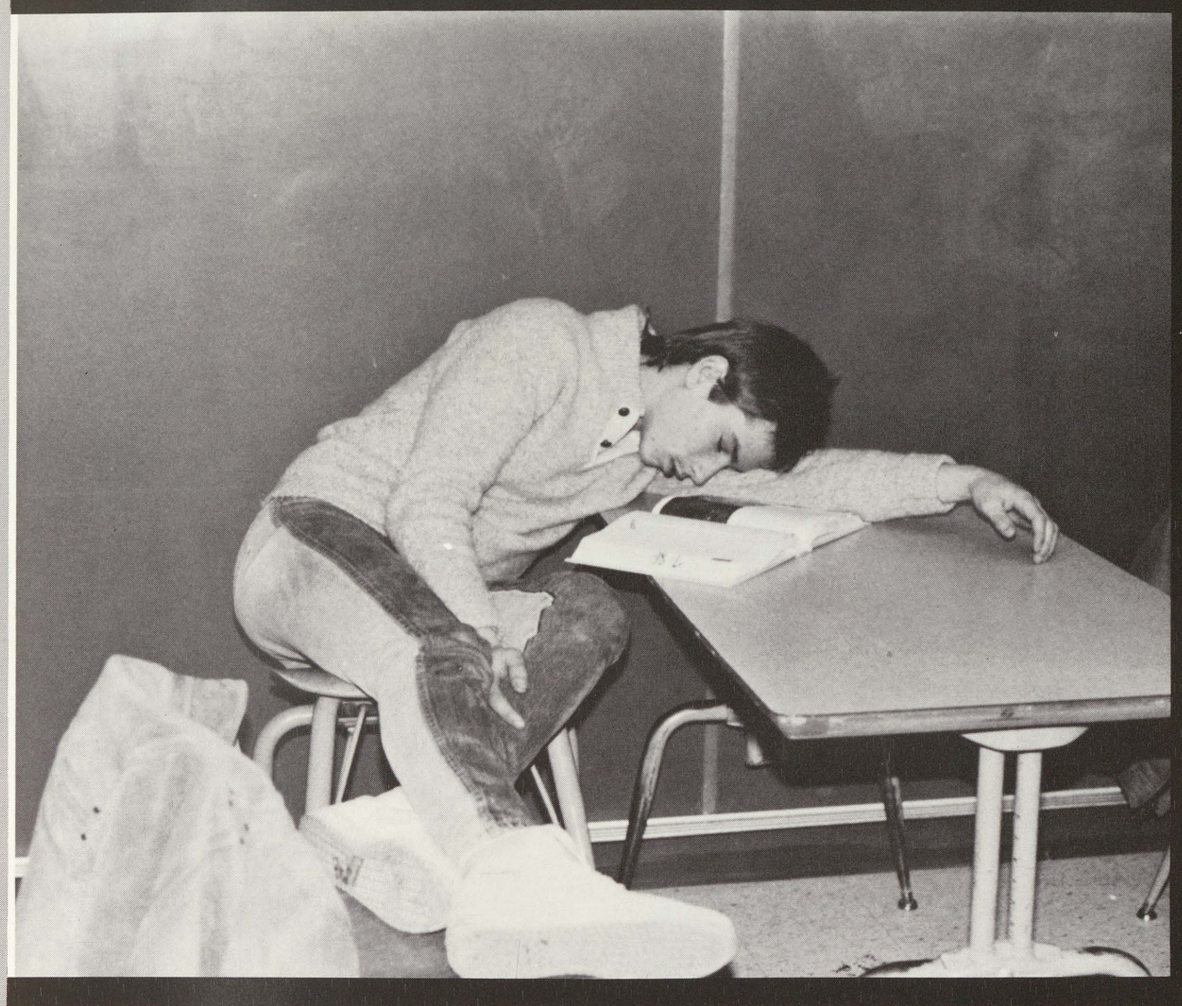
V is for veterans who've made it through,
and for violent words they screamed at you.
V is for verbs in English class,
and for vows you made swearing you'd pass.
V is for voyages from place to place,
and for veering paths down which you race.
V is for vandals who ruined our school,
and for vicious destruction by venemos fools.
V is for very fun times we've shared,
and the various people for which we've cared.
V is for victories we have made,
and for very nice memories that will never fade!!

This year went so fast it was UNBELIEVABLE! With all the dances parties, and games there was hardly time for school and studying! But if you didn't UNDERSTAND something, there were always teachers ready and willing to help you learn. We somehow managed to UNDERMINE the system and make it through an UNBELIEVABLE YEAR. .

"WALK" was WHAT we had to do at MacArthur this year! Unlike Ike WHICH is enclosed, MacArthur is set up like a college campus. and in order to go from English to math, we had to WALK all the way to the other end of the campus. WISHES, hopes and dreams filled this year as we proceeded through our high school year. Best wishes WERE WHAT WERE sent to the seniors as they completed their studies and graduated form IKE, the home they knew for four years.



EXTRA-CURRICULAR was a word that many of us became familiar with as we spent many hours after school decorating, practicing for the big game or cheering. Doing EXTRA beyond what was required was familiar for many of us as we strived to get the best grades we could.

YOUNG were what many freshamn were called this YEAR. We all had a lot of fun but yet managed to complete our studies. Among the fun we had was going to dances where we had to YELL to be heard but we didn't really mind.

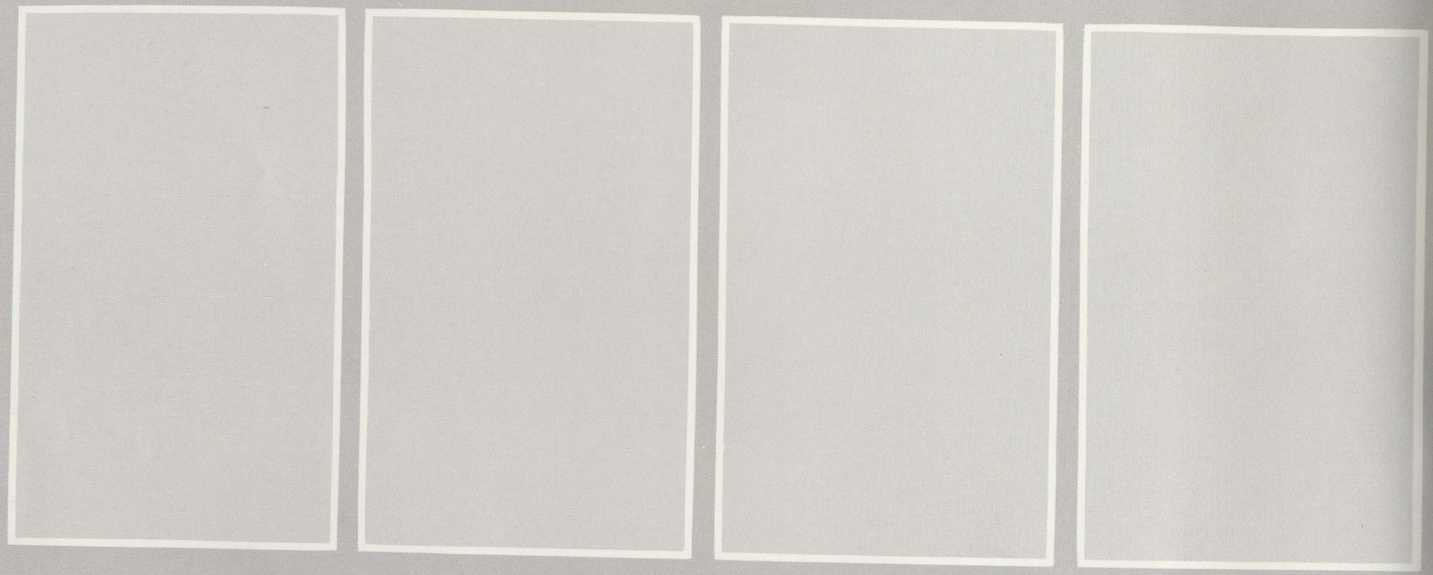
White Pine Council



Provides Necessary Communication

This year's student government goal was to get the whole student body involved.

Members of Forum were elected in early September. Their first task was to run class council election. Forum added a new committee called the "Involvement Committee", which included a group of students that contributed time to help Forum. The highlight of the fall agenda was a trip north to Higgins lake. Forum members and friends planned the year's activities and set goals they wished to achieve throughout the year. There was pie-throwing in the student center 4th and 5th hours. A cutest baby contest was also held during the lunch hours. (Matt Eurich) was successful as the cutest baby.

Forum sponsored a Cooks and Custodians day on November 13 to recognize all the help they give the school. November was the month for the Thanksgiving food drive. On November 21 Forum worked with Pep Club to have a 50's mixer dance.

Forum kept busy through the holiday season by organizing the class Christmas decorating contest. A Forum Christmas party was also held to celebrate the holiday season. In late winter Forum sponsored the Commander Court Dance. The organization helped with winter and spring special olympics. March was the month for organizing with Drama Club the 2nd annual "Mock Rock". The year ended with an all-school picnic which was also sponsored by Forum.

This year's Forum officers were: President, (Carolyn Mitchell); Vice President, (Kala Karu); Secretary, (Missy Cross); Treasurer, (Grant Hegenaur); advisor, (Jim Rummler).

Pep Club Has an Outrageously Spirited Year!!

Spirit!!! That's basically what Pep Club is all about and that's what this year's Pep Club has been trying to achieve. Under the direction of President Soni Mithani, Vice-President Stephanie Bierlien, and Secretary-Treasurer Tamie Matson, the members of Pep Club organized Homecoming, elected the song "We've Only Just Begun" to serve as the dance's theme, and sold close to two hundred tickets.

Homecoming, however, was just the beginning. Pep Club also got the spirit going by promoting a Spirit Week, namely MacArthur Week. Students showed school pride by dressing up in shorts and shades during Ft. Lauderdale Day and in school colors during the annual Green and White Day. The four classes also competed in decorating the Student Center with streamers, balloons, and signs, all of which displayed support for the school. To keep the spirit alive for the rest of the year, the Pep Club sold pom-pons at the games and sweatshirts during school.

Sports committees were also formed by the members of the club. They chose chairpersons to head the committees, which supported the school sports teams with treats in the office and with signs in the Student Center. Parents' Night was also another feature that was sponsored for the teams.

Besides performing the regular Pep Club duties, members also tried something new. They gave themes to various dances. Ideas ranged from a Fifties' Dance to a backwards Prom.

Pep Club has helped to increase school spirit, but members agree that students could show a lot more. Yet, it's been hard to do so considering the past situation. The fire, though, brought the school closer together, and dedication and spirit is now stronger than ever.

Hard Work Makes Things Fun!

Cheerleading is a sport that not only takes great precision and stamina, but also the task of filling the crowd with spirit. Eisenhower cheerleaders had great success in getting the crowds to respond in a rowdy manner, and to have a good time cheering their teams on to victory. Preparing for the new year, the Varsity squad attended a summer cheerleading camp at Oakland University. Even though they were always very tired from the day's strenuous work, they always found the time to pick on Joe, the camp director, and sneak by him with little souveniers from their dorm, Hamlim Hall. At the same time the J.V. cheerleaders were way down south in Ohio where they also attended a cheerleading camp, learning many new styles and techniques.

Working hard for the preparation of competition was a task for the Varsity cheerleaders. Although there were many arguments and difficult practice times, the squad pulled close together, and it certainly paid off. At the regional for competition, the squad placed second runner up which enabled them to pack their bags and fly on down to Orlando, Florida, to compete at nationals! The best thing that could ever happen to the Eisenhower Varsity cheerleaders came true. Captain of the varsity squad was Judy Heidger and co-captain was Ann Koski. Captain of the junior varsity was Connie Schwab, and co-captain was Michelle Gendregeske. Angie Barrerra was freshman captain and Becky Wight was co-captain.

The cheerleaders had a very productive year doing many things to catch the school spirit, making everything a little ... OUTRAGEOUS!

Pom Pon Squads Show New Style

The 1986-87 pom pon squads are showing a new style. If you didn't notice, pom pon isn't just high kicks and pompons anymore. This year there were nerd, Halloween, football, and dance routines. Also, showing a new style, there were much bigger squads which led to new ideas.

This year, pompon camp was held at Shanty Creek Condominiums and was a mixture of work and play. Thanks to coaches Joan Fleener and Lori Cole, the squad got some work done at camp and the girls on the squad took care of the fun times.

With all of their hard work, the girls are hoping to keep up their first and second place records at State and Silverdome competitions. Pompon holds many good memories for all of our squads and we hope our new styles will continue to be as much fun as this year was.

J.V. spooks up a Halloween dance.

Whoops! There go their pompons.

The music won't start again?

Let the Music Play

Sometimes the music doesn't seem to want to start during halftime and there are many reasons for this. One of the reasons is the tape player gets hungry and decides to snack on our music. Another reason is because the speakers don't feel like working. And yet another reason is because our tape player ends up missing ten minutes before halftime. The crowd seems to understand (but they still get a few laughs) when these technical difficulties arise. From the pom pon girls' point of view it's a little embarrassing but more of a let down; still, they keep smiling and hoping the music will start. So, from the pom pon girls and spectators we have one request: Let The Music Play.

Eisenhower Band

While most people are at the beach or at the mall during the last two weeks of summer, members of the Eisenhower Marching Band were out in the parking lot practicing their drills. In early August, the band members received a letter from band director Michael Vierow informing them of the dates and times for their practices. At these practices band members practice drills, marching, and playing various pieces of music. By the time school began, the band had mastered its music and drills and was prepared for pre-game and half-time entertainment at Eisenhower's home football games. A lot of time and dedication were given by band members as they were required to report to the band room at 6:30. In addition, they had to learn a new drill for every game. This proves there is a lot more to being a member of the band than many people think.

It may seem as if being a band member is a lot of hard work: it is, but members still find time to have fun. Along with fun, band members found a sense of unity and many lasting friendships were formed as a result of their participation.

Eisenhower Choir Sings Out!

Eisenhower choir this year has been great. They came in at the begining of the year with a few rookies, a few veterans, who weren't really sure how to work as a team. Ms. Cheryl Cheger, the Choir Director soon honed them into a real team. They established a bond that you don't find very often in a class. The whole group of them worked together to achieve the perfection Ms. Cheger demanded. Some days they would come in sick but they still gave 110% just as well as they could. They did what they did because they wanted to attain a level of perfection that they could call their own.

The Choir is involved in some really neat things this year. Two weeks of so after they got into the class they started to learn the music for their Christmas Concerts. They worked long and hard to learn all of their music. Then the flood happened. BOOM! A week and a half of practice gone, with no way to retrieve it. They started to kick everything into overdrive to by ready for their first concert. They got things together and produced one of the best Christmas Concerts ever. Even thought they had to deal with a flood and their school burning, they worked at MacAuthur and finally got used to their strange surroundings.

After long hard discussion with their teacher, the Choir decided on a few major trips, The smaller one is a trip to Lansing to give a concert. Next in line is a Tigers Baseball game to sing the National Anthem. But the big one of the year, the trip that they have sold in numerable candy bars and m&m's for, is the trip to Chicago, Illinois. The group will bus to Chicago to sing at the Great America. Lots of fund raising is going into this. "I feel that it will be the perfect learning experience". Said Choir member Gabe Hausbeck. The whole crew is expected to produce great things. Good Luck.

TIME OUT FOR AN . . . .

OUTSTANDING ATHLETE

Years of practice and discipline paid off in a national championship for senior Jae Won Lim this summer when she won a gold medal in Tae Kwon Do. Jae Won's medal for Black Belt Form was awarded in St. Louis, Missouri, the site of the championship.

"I like competing", she said. "I like to win. Everything is a learning experience at the tournament." More than a thousand people competed in forms, but Jae Won never even considered the possibility that someone else might beat her. She said she was nervous, but confident. "I was expected to get the gold medal in forms," she said. "My dad is one of the best. I wish I was a natural like him," she added.

Although she won the gold medal, Jae Won recognized that she had much more to learn. "I don't consider myself a great martial artist", she said. "If you look at my dad, then look at me, you see there is no comparison."

This was her first attempt at full contact sparring in a tournament. She said, "It was so bad I thought I was going to die . . . but I love it. I'd do it again."

Jae Won holds a junior black belt, and teaches at her father's Tae Kwon Do academy in Saginaw. Instruction takes 20-24 hours per week, leaving her only 6 hours for practice. Her day begins at 6, and homework is often sandwiched in at the gym. She is home by 9 p.m., finishes dinner by 9:30, and tries to finish her homework by midnight.

Jae Won was born in Seoul, Korea, and came to the United States at the age of three because her "dad thought we would get better opportunites here."

Tae Kwon Do gold medalist Jaewon Lim shows her style and ability.

Forensics Team Excels With New Coach

Forensics. At first one might think of someone who is experienced in the art of noticing details, but this is not the case. Here at Eisenhower, Forensics takes on a whole new meaning as any member of the Forensics team will tell someone who asks.

Because of the search to find a coach after the school year got underway, the Forensics team got started a little late in the season. Under the direction of Miss Jackie DeRosia, the Forensics team had a fairly successful year.

There were many newcomers to the team; including freshmen Robyn VanTol, Tammy Snyder, Dave Miller, Gabe Hausbeck, and Angie Barrera; sophomores S T Sanford and Michelle Hirschenberger; junior Jennifer Nash; and Senior Doug Sweeting.

Commenting on the team having so many members old and new this year senior Soni Mithani replied, "I think it's really great that the freshmen are so interested; it means that the Forensics team will continue.

With a lot of hard work and dedication from every member on the team, the Forensics group pulled together and had a very successful year.

The team will be saying good-bye to five seniors this year. These seniors are Soni Mithani, Informative, Kris Lord, Serious, Mary Byrne, Serious, Tamie Matson, Duo, Doug Sweeting, Extemp and Tricia Chuo, Dramatic Interpretation.

Eisenhower Gets The Word

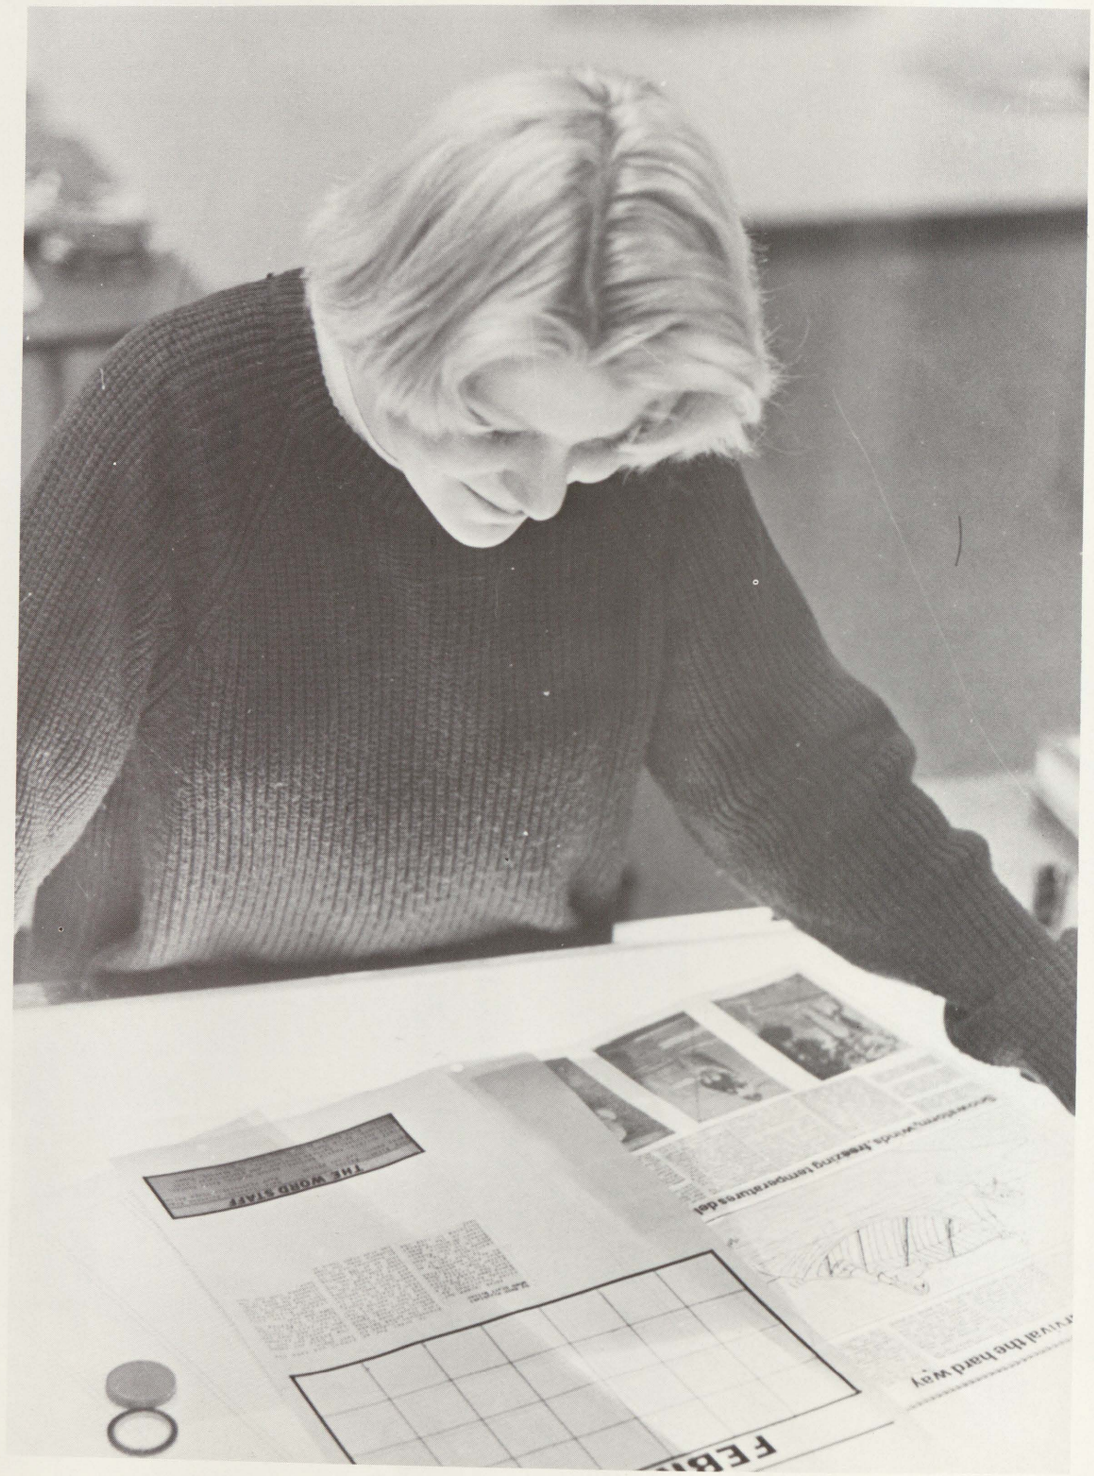
Journalism was in vogue this year. It was necessary to create two sections of newspaper to handle all the qualified applicants. After Eisenhower burned and the student body moved to MacArthur's campus, the staff intensified its production efforts. In order to keep a sense of identity among the student body, the paper began publishing on a bi-weekly basis, rather than the customary monthly schedule. Editor Mary Byrne and layout specialist Karen Spern contributed countless hours in order to keep the student body and faculty informed. Photographer Mark Pryzbylski and artist Martin Thompson found much in the debris and rubble to document.

What were the questions of 1986/87? Who burned the school? When will it be fixed? Will we return? Is Eisenhower safe? Why don't we get any answers? Not all news was bleak, however. The staff performed its own typesetting and layout, cutting the cost of production enough that the paper could be distributed to students at no cost.

The fire was not the only topic in the news. Teenage pregnancy, marriage and divorce, school burglaries, and the sudden appearance of a flasher in the halls added depth to the coverage. Staff humorist Melissa Kirkland gave the student body much to chuckle over, while Manish Dedhia's concern for world affairs reminded students that the frivolty of the 80's was not without its costs.

Schools may be filled with empty talk and questions without answers, but at Eisenhower High School, it is still easy to get "THE WORD".



Word staffer Karen Spern prepares a special layout for the Eisenhower newspaper, THE WORD.

Floods, fires, and the frustrations of equipment failure had no impact on WORD optimist (and Editor) Mary Byrne. Upon hearing that production had halted because the word processor had self-destructed, Mary immediately took charge of the disheartened staff and declared a celebration. Leadership takes courage . . . and an occasional dab of chocolate.

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

I couldn't breathe. It was really scary" said Ann Harrington, describing her feelings when her canoe capsized in the frigid waters of the Manistee River. "The water was so cold it took my breath away," she continued. "I just can't describe how cold it was."

Ann was part of the November canoe trip on the Manistee River near Grayling. She was canoeing with George Shoenmeyer, a parent chaperoning the trip. The pair exited the river, built a hasty lean-to, and changed into dry clothing.

Ann expressed anger that cottage owners offered no help during the crisis. She said "After we were out of the river, had recovered everything and were getting ready to leave, one kid came down to ask if we needed any help." She added, "They just watched us struggle and never helped at all. It makes me so mad".

Another canoe capsized that day. Doug Sweeting and Mike Lippert fell into the river when Lippert attempted to steer by grabbing a limb. The pair quickly got out of the water and changed into dry clothing. Asked what he was thinking about as the icy waters grabbed, Lippert answered quickly, "Food". When Doug Sweeting was asked what he learned about winter canoeing, he replied tersely, "Never canoe with Lippert."

"What do you expect for a Michigan weekend?" the gas station attendant replied.

Outdoor club members were complaining about the weather they experienced during their November canoe weekend. Twenty-two students and two adults encountered rain, sun, high winds, and a snowstorm on the three day adventure. The misery was not too intense for Lisa Davy. She stated "It was a blast. I'm ready to go again." Carrie Beckwith was able to find shelter from the wind long enough to frantically try to catch up on her Faulkner before Monday's test.

Apparently a few complaints took care of the discomfort, because the club immediately set about making plans for the winter trip to Pigeon River. For the past eleven years the club has ventured to the northern wilderness area to practice snowshoeing, nordic skiing, and cold weather camping amidst sub zero temperatures and 30-40 inches of snow.

Although the trips sound miserable to the novice, they are not at all uncomfortable, and offer a chance for rest and relaxation. Any evening's campfire is a collage of activities, including gossip, storytelling, serious complaining about school and teachers, and heavy-duty munching, while late night adventures like scaring novices, toilet papering adult tents, and giggling loudly remain popular ways to pass an otherwise long night. Junk foods at the top of the hit list are gummy bears in the evening, and the ubiquitous pop tart for breakfast. Homework even finds its way on the trips, and is occasionally of interest. Tricia Bamberger's question "Does anyone know who the father of Hester Pryn's baby is?" brought a sellout crowd to the evening campfire.

Club activities are not confined to arctic conditions, however. Club president Julie Zolinski asked the club to plan a spring bycycling trip, and to consider a summer adventure that would include white water rafting and horseback riding.

S.A.D.D. Successfully Continues Its Efforts

S.A.D.D. (Students Against Driving Drunk) has been an active organization here at Eisenhower, yet, it is a relatively new one. The Saginaw Eisenhower chapter began in 1985.

This year the group basically worked on the idea of promoting awareness throughout the student body. During the Homecoming and Christmas seasons S.A.D.D. displayed posters encouraging students not to drive while under the influence of alcohol.

Buttons and key chains were sold throughout the year. This was a small effort that really paid off. "We feel that anything which tells students that it is dangerous to drink and drive, any type of publicity at all, truly helps our cause'' stated one S.A.D.D. member.

Eisenhower S.A.D.D. is not only a service to our school but also to our community. The S.A.D.D. members received much pleasure at Halloween as they participated in their second annual visit to Maccabbee Gardens Center for the elderly. Also, during the summer, Eisenhower and MacArthur S.A.D.D. groups join forces along with the Saginaw Township Families in Action to put on dances for the teenagers in the area. These dances are presented so that kids will have somewhere to go without the pressure to consume alcohol.

S.A.D.D. plans to continue their efforts with full force. The prom and graduation seasons are especiallly important, for this is one of the most popular times of the year for drunk driving accidents to occur. It has been said that these are the best years of our lives; let's not ruin them by driving drunk.

An important order is given by Vice President Missy Cross.

The Show Must Go On

Vice President Mary Byrne

The Drama Club set many goals this year. It was planning to produce two plays, a comedy and a musical. Unfortunately, in the midst of the comedy's production, ("Dear Diary") the fire struck. Along with many other things, the club's plans went up in smoke.

It was difficult for the Drama Club to resettle itself at MacArthur. The theater at MacArthur had to be shared between the two schools. Time schedules of theater use had to be drawn up between each school in order to avoid any conflicts. Besides this, several cast members had forgotten many of their lines and blocking steps. Beginning again with the unfinished play would be like starting a new production once again. Thus, with these conflicts to face, the Drama Club decided not to present "Dear Diary". With little time remaining in the year, the Drama Club decided to spend their total efforts in the presentation of the annual Mock Rock Night in April.

Faced with the absence of a director and club advisor, the Drama club hired three college students from Saginaw Valley State College as new directors.

This year's officers were: Tricia Chuo, president; Mary Byrne, vice-president; and Karen Spern, treasurer.

Carrie Beckwith: A member of the would-be play "Dear Diary".

Foreign Language

Bonjour mes amis! The French club has been busy this year planning parties and get-togethers but they've been even more busy planning what may be the best two weeks of their lives. Yes, you guessed it! They're planning a European vacation for June of 1987! They're going to journey through mysterious London, exhilarating Switzerland, and , of course, la Belle France. "I've never even been out of the Midwest," exclaimed one excited member, "But FRANCE, I can't wait!!" [Paul Manelis], president of the club, has organized a paper drive to raise money for the trip. Bon Apetit!!

Clubs Expand

!Hola amigos! The Spanish club was bigger and better than ever this year. Mrs. [Nelson] and Mrs. Hunter had the club focusing on serious issues this year. They raised money for the earthquake victims in Mexico and they collected toys for less fortunate Mexican children. The club is planning to have many more fund raisers for good causes in the future. !Bueno! Hallo meine Freunde! The German club always found a way to prove that more are not always the merrier. The new, bubbly teacher, Mrs. [Becker], spread her enthusiasm to her students and brought spirit to the club. They enjoyed hayrides, picnics, plays, and parties this year.

The Senior Class Council kept active in spite of an awkward year. Things got slowed down with the move to MacArthur, but the council still kept pace with its busy schedule. The council held a Christmas party and took part in a senior sleigh ride in January. Toward the end of the year, the class of '87 took their traditional May trip to Cedar Point and spend their last few dollars for the senior party.

TIME OUT

Time-Out for Commander

Beginning practice on August 18th, the Commanders Varsity Girls basketball team wanted to get an edge on the opposition for the 1986 season. With help from Claudette Charney, a former player for Eisenhower and coach at Saginaw Valley State College, coach Jim Noble worked primarily on offense during pre-season this year.

Kim Seiferlein, with an average of 9.2 points per game and 194 points for all games this year, led the commanders in scoring with Molly Ward close behind with an 185 points. Both Seiferlein and Ward made second team All Conference, with honorable mentions going to senior Kathy Jacobi and sophomore Wendy Iamurri. M.V.P. (Most Valuable Player) trophy was awarded to Molly Ward this season. Besides being a leading scorer for the team, she also had the most rebounds (190) and held her own in all areas of play. M.I.P (Most Improved Player) went to junior Jodi Haskin and sophomore Wendy Iamurri this season. M.E.P (Most Energetic Player) went to Mary Swartzendruber, who kept team spirit high

"Though we're losing some valuable seniors next year, we still have many excellent juniors and sophomores. The girls are really hard workers and they work well together. We had a super season this year and we're hoping for an even better one in 1987," commented coach Jim Noble.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETES

Matt Maturen started soccer at the age of five because it was "just one of those things." Little did he know that it wasn't just one of those things.

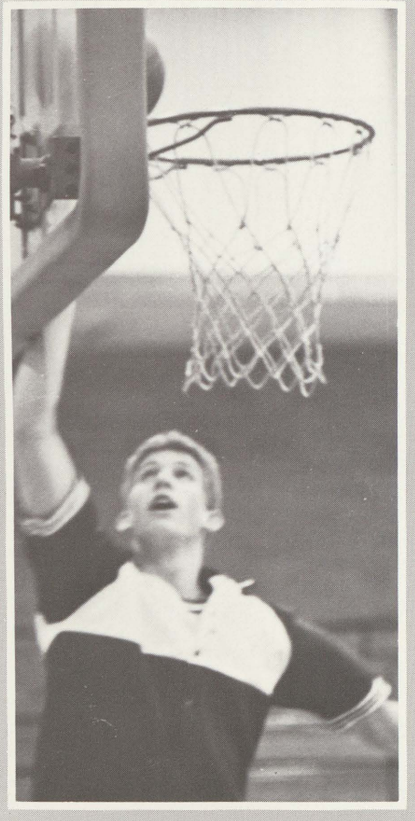
This past fall Matt received All-State recognition. When asked how he felt about receiving such an award he said, "I was surprised, I thought I had played better last year." How humble! The surprising thing is that his ability came naturally. He has never attended any camps or clinics. "The ability was there, I thought I'd might as well use it," said Matt.

Matt's career plans don't include soccer but he'll always try to find time to play. However, he did say that, "If it happens that I get a chance to pursue it I will, but there's not much chance of that." GOOD LUCK ANYWAY!

Although John Wilson has not yet received state recognition we would like to congratulate him for a full-ride scholarship at Kent State . . . for basketball, of course.

John began his basketball career in approximately 3rd grade. When asked why he stuck with it, he simply stated, "basketball is what I do best." Obviously! John has played on Varsity since his sophomore year and last year he received state honorable mention. This year he is a likely candidate for the White Pine 1st team and maybe even all-state.

As far as basketball is as a part of his future, John said, "I'm going to try to do the best I can, if I do well, I'll continue."



With his father's provoking, senior Rajesh Alva first started to play tennis at age 12. Although he didn't realize his full potential for 6 months, he stuck with it because it was the sport he was best at.

His dedication has paid off. Last summer Rajesh won first place for both singles and double play at the men's tournament in Saginaw Township. Recently the U.S.T.A. (United States Tennis Association) has ranked him 4th in Northern Michigan.

Rajesh will attend the University of Michigan in the fall. He plans on trying out for the tennis team but will only pursue tennis if he has time.

Mikey forgot hiz picturg.

What do you do when your dad is a pro golfer? You do what senior Mike Anderson did, follow in his footsteps. Mike started playing golf at age five and has been excelling ever since. In fact, in this past year, Mike has the Oscoda Invitational and the regionals, and was ranked third in the state. He was also on the super team, consisting of eight outstanding players.

Mike is unlike many students who leave their high school sport behind. He has been offered a scholarship at M.S.U. to continue playing and he plans to take it as far as he can. Good luck, Mike.

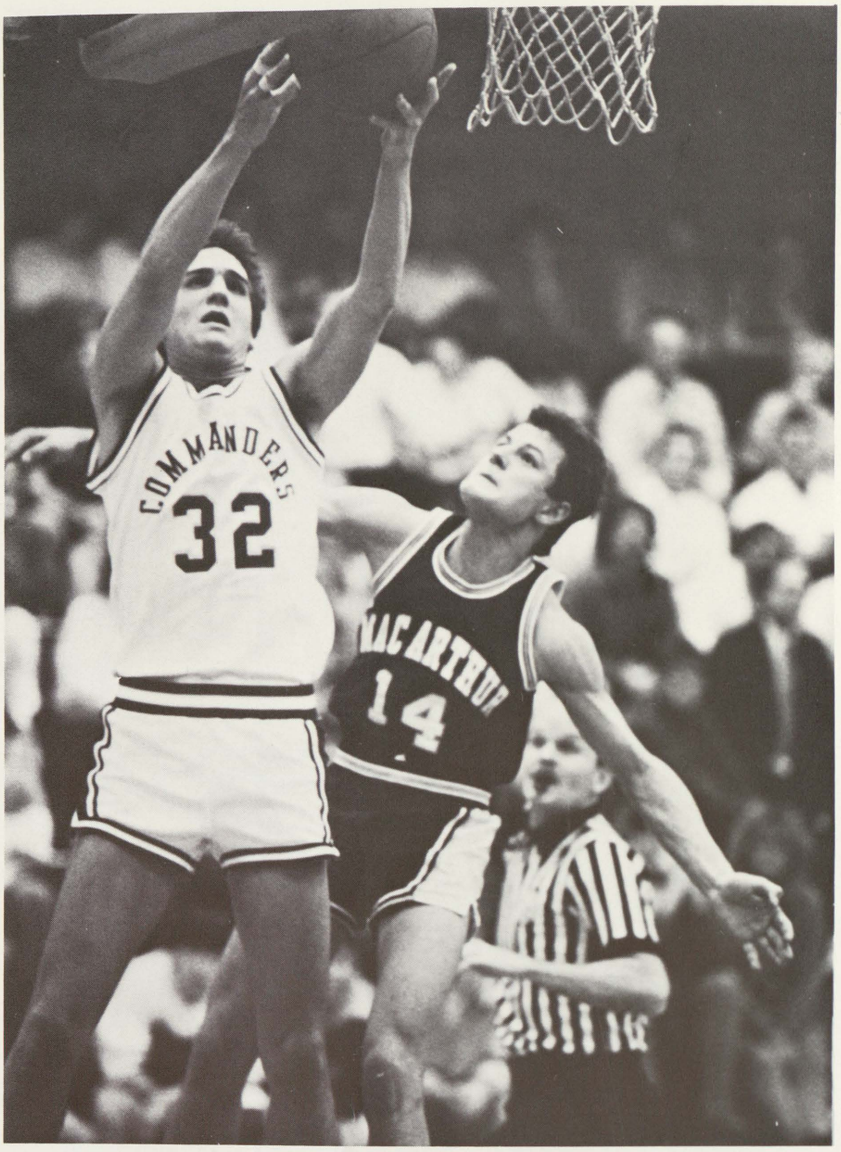
Gymnastics is a way of life for senior Corinne Payk. She began training twelve years ago and found it exciting so she stuck with it. After several years of vigorous training, she began competing . . . and began winning. Perhaps her most important accomplishment is the Maurice R. Davis award. This award is given to the most outstanding gymnast of the year. Congratulations, Corinne.

This year will not be a repeat performance, however, because Corrine is no longer allowed to compete due to several back injuries. But Corrine's talents aren't going to waste. She now coaches. When asked about the new role, Corrine said "I'm glad I'm still involved in some way."



The referee (background) makes a good call.

Ike's Hoopers Bring Sold OUT Crowds

Ike hoopers were outstanding this year. The team consisted of nine returning seniors and five juniors.

This year was different than years past because the team had to work around a difficult schedule. Sharing a gym with other teams wasn't easy when you're used to a big gym like IKE's.

Spirit was a big factor in this year's basketball season. The stands were filled with green and white bleacher creatures cheering the team on. They cheered even louder when Kent State bound John Wilson broke the record of 592 career rebounds.

The team ended with a conference record of 8 wins and 2 losses which allowed them second place in the White Pine Conference. The leading scorers were seniors John Wilson, Phil Brefka, and Matt Hirschenberger. Leading rebounder was senior John Wilson and senior Ron Austin was named Top Defensive Player.

This year the team had a tough schedule, but of course they beat MacArthur both times the two teams met. One of the teams main goals this year was to beat Buena Vista in the districts.

Nice ponytail Karleen DeMaet.

FOR THOSE OF YOU WHO DON'T UNDERSTAND THE CAPTIONS ON THE OPPOSITE PAGE — YOU NOTICED THE OBVIOUS BUT HAVE YOU EVER GIVEN THE REST OF THE PICTURE A GLANCE?

JVs ENJOY OUTSTANDING SEASON

Tara Davis prepares to grab the rebound

"We came out strong every game." This quote best describes the Girls' Junior Varsity Basketball Team. The girls enjoyed great success as they came in first in the White Pine Conference with a 9-1 record.

The team had many players so the starting lineup always had a strong bench to back them up — and a lot of spirit.

Although no awards were presented to players, freshman Tara Davis led the team in scoring. Sophomore Tammy Anderson was also mentioned as a major contributer to the team's successful season. The girls were coached by Vicki Rupp.

Winning Isn't Everything

Ike narrows the gap!

Lacking any experience and having only a six person roster, the girls' freshman basketball team did not enjoy much success in the win column; however, winning wasn't everything to this group of girls. Learning the fundamentals of the game was the primary emphasis according to coach Diane Forrester.

None of the girls had played organized basketball before. They thought it would be fun and gave it a shot. It took a lot of courage to try something brand new.

Those who saw the first game and the last game noticed a vast improvement in skills. The improvement was due to the fine efforts of each player and coach Forrester. The players were very eager to improve. Despite losing almost every game, they showed a lot of character and never let up.

The season was a success in terms of preparing them for next year. With their great desire and determination, they can look forward to more success in the future.

J.V. Leaves Panthers Blue

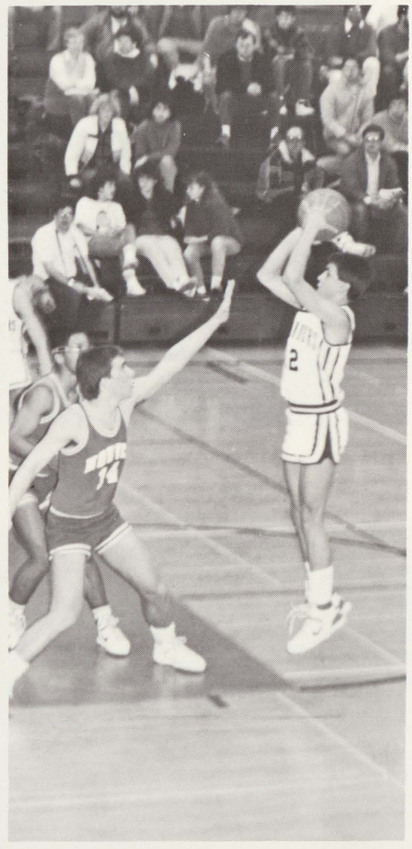
Jeff McInerney rebounds.

The highlight of the season was the game against Nouvel. With 2 minutes left in the 4th quarter the commanders pulled through with a 54-49 win.

The season started off slow but things began picking up when varsity players Cory Ruppel and Jeff McInerney chose to step down to J.V. for more playing time. This not only helped the team but gave Cory and Jeff a chance to show their ability.

The practice schedule was difficult for the team. They had to practice in the elementary school gyms, early in the morning, so coach Tom Rybak could be on time for his teaching job. "It was a big change from the MacArthur gym." says Freshmen Chris Jacobi. "The team worked well together," quotes Sophomore Brian Dice, "We all got along and our hard work paid off."

Turnovers were the most costly mistake during the season. The team feels they will learn from their mistakes and come out stronger than ever next year.



Chris Jacobi adds to the commander lead against Nouvel.

Frosh B-Ball OUT Of Sight

SCORE!

The freshmen B teams record of 10-2 really showed their talent, losing only to Nouvel Catholic Central.

"The team had a lot of talent and were easy to coach." commented Coach Tim Conley "There was a good feeling between the guys and most importantly they worked well together."

The loss of 6'4" Paul Abenth hurt the team because of his rebounding and shooting ability. Along with the loss of Paul Abenth the team aquired two players from the A team that helped make up the difference.

One problem that faced the freshmen was finding a place to practice. Justine Bellinger said, "We had a good season except for the practice areas, Mackinaw's tile floor was really slippery."

J.V. and Varsity Tennis

To say the least, last year was an outrageous season for the varsity tennis team. Not only did Tim Blanchet break his very expensive and most adored tennis racket by his clumsiness, the team beat MacArthur for the first time ever! According to team member John Michalski, "the best part of the season was beating D.M." But Rajesh Alva, also a member of the team says, "Beating MacArthur was great, but I had more fun at State." The rest of the team agreed with that. Overall, the team lost only one match to Midland Dow. At regionals they placed second, which qualified them to go to State. At state the team placed within the top 20. They finally earned the title of White Pine Conference Champions.

But you didn't think the team went that far without tiring practices do you? Of course not. Coach Bill Stocker worked the guys hard, but even with tiring practices they found time to play a game they invented. The object of the game is to come as close as you can to hitting the coach while he's not looking. Poor Coach Stocker got hit a couple of times, but never had any injuries (that's more than we can say for the person who hit him).

All in all Coach Stocker did a great job. John Michalski and Edmund Bermudez also did a great job as #1 doubles team. Rajesh "Hadji" Alva was the #1 singles player and also M.V.P. for the season. Jerry Tong was named the most improved player. To wrap this up in tennis talk, "nets" have another season like last year because we "luved" it.

Prove Ike is #1

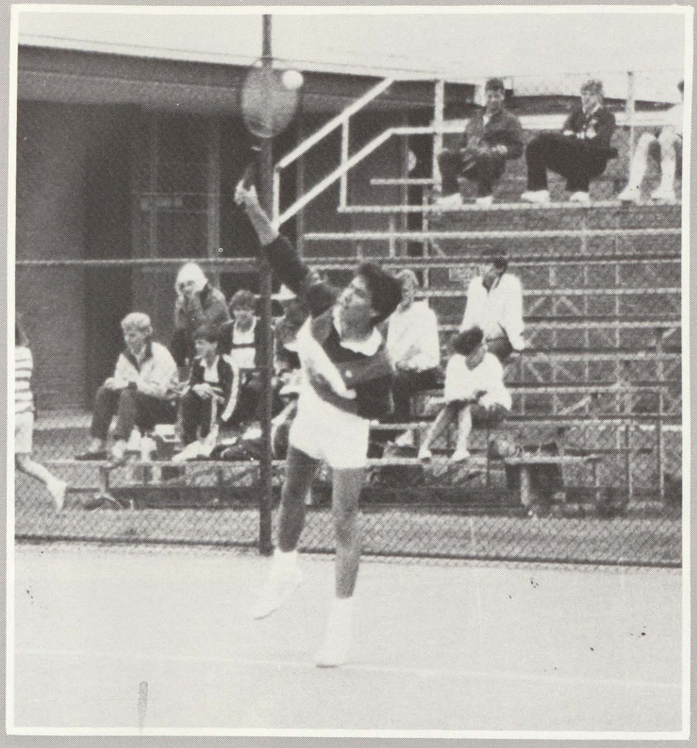
Seniors Edmund Bermudez and John Michalski show their stuff as they play doubles during their match.



Senior tennis player George Reip concentrates as he watches the ball collide with his racquet.

The junior varsity tennis team had a great season in the spring of 86. Coach James Benjamin said that his team was second to the best that he had ever coached. Although the season ended with fewer people than when it started, the team ended up with a 7-1 record overall. To add fun to the dreaded practices, the team found it fun to play dodge ball, in the sun.

Number one player Charlie Perkins played so exceptionally well that he would occasionally be moved up to play in a varsity match, but he would never hitch a ride from coach Benjamin because of the coach's reputation for bad driving. Paul Manelis said, "he's crazy".

Paul Manelis and Jason Armstrong were number one doubles partners. They beat Douglas MacArthur 7-6, 6-3 in a gratifying victory. "That was a fun game", said Jason Armstrong after the big win.

Unfortunately it was a short season for Paul Manelis.

The team had a great season that ended with a good record, and their final excitement ended with the victory over MacArthur.

Injuries and Lack of Seniors Made For a Challenging Season

"It was a challenging season considering we only had one playing senior," exclaimed Coach Jim Teal. Singles players on the Girls' Varsity Tennis Team had a challenging season after their No. 1 singles player, senior Kala Karu, was out of play after only one match. This left No. 3 singles player Soni Mithani as the only playing senior. Soni also missed some matches with an injured elbow.

Despite these setbacks, the team finished with 6 wins and 4 losses during regular season play. In post season play, the team came in third at White Pine and sixth at Regionals. Lehka Karu and Babs Byrne, No. 1 and No. 2 singles players respectively, were both chosen for the WPC All Conference First Team.

As the season wound down, No. 1 doubles partners Amy Brisbois and Helen Brady were both chosen for the Most Valuable Player Award. Mindy Almond was presented the award for Most Improved Player. Coach Teal commented on the season by stating, "We're looking forward to next year with many returning letter winners."

Down But Not Out

"The highlight of the season came early", according to Bill Vondette. The commanders swept their first win at the Ainsworth Tournament in Flint, Michigan with victories over Montrose and Aisworth. This put the Commander Varsity Baseball team in outrageous spirit for the continuation of the season. Even though loses came in abundance, with a final season record of 7-19, Coach 'Bear' Loue Dulac and the Commanders still kept in high spirits and pulled off two wins in the White Pine Conference Championships led by their fantastic pitcher, Don Beyer.

The past behind them, the Commander Varsity Baseball team is looking forward to a super season in '87', with many outrageous memories of the '86' season still in mind.

"The most memorable moment of the '86' season was when we won the trophy at our first tournament against Ainsworth. The rest of the season went downhill but we gained a lot of experience. I think that in the '87' season, our team will have a good chance at White Pine Conference Champs because we have a lot of experienced seniors and juniors. Hopefully, we will win the title over MacArthur in '87'" said Jason Wood.

VARSITY IS SECOND TO NONE

Who did it? WE DID IT! Eisenhower came through with a blockbuster season. With a nine and one record, the Eisenhower varsity softball team became the White Pine Champs of 1986.

Junior Lori Moskal led the team with three home runs and she was followed by the team's three seniors who each had one.

At the White Pine Conference tournament, senior Beth Cox had a whopping .571 batting average and was followed closely by juniors Audra Horonzy and Jenny LaFlair with .538 and .500 batting average.

Coach Jim Rummler stated that he thought the team, "did real well. I hope to be state champs next year."

Junior Judy Heidger thought "it was a really a good season. I think that Rum is a really good coach; he knows his softball." Senior Julie Zolinski, a veteran from last year's varsity, "wasn't quite as satisfied with the season as some of my team mates were, though it was worth it to grow closer to my friends."

One of last year's players, Traci LeBlanc said, "I liked it a lot. Rum was good about getting everybody in." Jenny LaFlair's comments on the season were: "I wasn't satisfied with my own playing time. I wish that I'd done better." Yet she still achieved nearly a .270 batting average. "I liked being on the team. I thought that Rum was a good coach."

Andrea Reis shared some of the things that stuck in her mind. She said "it was so fun. Rum made it that way. I think that if we had used our talent to the fullest we would have won more outside games." She continued, "I remember the Birch Run game. I had quite a run in with their big catcher. I mean she hit the ball all the way to the fence and only got a triple."

J.V.s Share White Pine Title

Junior varsity softball ended the season with a 14-13 win/loss record, sharing the White Pine Conference title with Mt. Pleasant.

Leann Luplow was named MVP for the season, leading the team in home runs. Luplow and Ann Koski, who was named Most Important Player, both played in all 27 games of the season. Two other outstanding players were Torri Vasey, who was named best pitcher with a 10-7 record, and Nikki Shuler, who led the offense with a .474 batting average. Vasey pitched 89 innings and faced more than 420 batters. Shuler played in 24 games with 72 times at bat.

Kim Tobin, who played on the JV team, thought this about the season: "We started out slow but we showed a lot of improvement later in the season. We had a very young team and it was hard for everybody to get in equal playing time. Our coach did the best he could have with the number of players we had. It turned out to be a really fun season."

Another of the team's players was Abby Erway. She thought that "the team had a lot of experience, but we didn't really show it until the end of the year. We had a good season, but I think that it could have been better if everyone would have put in a little more effort into it. We worked hard and had a lot of fun in the process.

IT'S THE TOP OF THE NINTH . . .

The game is tied up 6 to 6. This batter will decide the game. The crowd is roaring. The batter is up with the count being three and two. This is the kind of stuff that makes up childhood dreams.!! There is the wind up . . . the pitch . . . (Remember, this will decide the game!) . . . and HE HE HE HE . . . STRIKES OUT!!!!!! BUT . . . that's okay, it wasn't our team!!! BUT . . . speaking of our team, the Eisenhower J.V. Baseball team proved they had some mean moves in them this year. With Mr. Kurtz as their coach, you know they had a good chance at a great season. Leading the team this year were co-captains Brent Tallon and Roger Riggie. There were some special awards given this year to the following players: Steve Malace-Best ERA, and Best Pitcher; Mike Beyer — Best Average and the Most Valuable Player; Todd Maziarz — Most Improved Player

One of the highlights of the season was when we played MacArthur. It was a double-header and we won both games. During the first game Shaun Doyle hit a home run, and during the second game Todd Maziarz hit a grand slam to win the game!!

There were a few injuries this year. Roger Riggie and Grant Heganaur were both benched for a while because of injuries early on in the season. One of the most memorable games of the season was the game against Carmen. Carmen's catcher was antagonizing our team so badly that Steve Malace decided to do something about it . . . and did. To make a long story short, it became something of a bench brawl, to say the least!!!

Roger Riggie, when asked what he thought about coach Kurtz, replied," Coach Kurtz? Oh Coach Kurtz was awesome!!".

"The team had a good rebuilding season and is looking forward to next season". The Eisenhower Freshman Baseball team ended its season with a record of 4 and 11. The team played mostly doubleheaders throughout the season. The games they won were against John Glenn (twice), Midland Central, and Mt. Pleasant. Dan Wilhelm said, "We were a good team but we needed more practice.

It only goes to say that all great Varsity Baseball players get their start from playing on the Freshman team or from being part of a baseball team some time in their life. They get good coaching early on. And that is exactly what happened when they acquired their new coach, Jim Allen. He said," We have a fine bunch of young men here. They are even starting to act like a team. I mean with team spirit and cooperation. By the time these guys get to Varsity, it will be one of the best teams Eisenhower has ever seen!"

John Will said, "The season was pretty cool. We probably could have done better and we probably could have done worse, but I think working as a team has really helped us for next year!"

Mike Luebkert, in summing up the season said, "It (the season) went okay, but we should do better in the future"

FANTASTIC FRESHMEN!!

The first day of practice came as quite a shock to newcomers at Eisenhower. Fifty-five girls came to the 6 a.m. practices in the gym, the three mile runs in the snow, and the indoor sprints around the school to complete for thirty-six spots on the team. Aerobics, indoor soccer games, and sprints on the track added variety to the monotonous drills. Team Captain Jill Barber added some variety to one long-distance run when she failed to notice the dog preparing to chew on her calves. Preseason isn't always the hardest part of the year, however. Coach Rol Crane said that the toughest part of the season for him was the day he had to tell the girls that they had a 4:00 game on Prom day. The girls took their anger out on the Midland and High team, won 3-1, and were off the field faster than the spectators at the final whistle.

Their hard work and sacrifices paid off! In regular season play, goalies Lynn Brady and Debbi Gates shared eight shutouts, and Jill Barber was named first team All-State player. The six freshman on the Varsity team helped lead the team to the Regional finals for the fifth consecutive season. Freshmen Tammy Anderson and Wendy Iamurri were the leading scorers for the team. "The talent in this community is unbelievable", says Varsity Coach Rol Crane. "They just keep getting better every year!"

If Coach Rol Crane is right, the team is sure to go far next season!

J.V. Has A PERFECT Record!

The JV soccer team definitely has something to be proud of. They finished the season with an outstanding record of 11-0, a record never accomplished by any other JV team. Goalkeepers Cathy Clement and Nikki Cooper let only four balls in their net the whole season. They shared a grand total of eight shutouts of eleven games. Jenny Galinski and Shelly Maturen were given the Best Defense awards and were invited to play on the Varsity team at the end of their season. The Best Offensive Player went to outstanding player Liz Vondette, and Most Valuable player was Chris Doran. Most improved player went to Angie Girardi and the Good Sportsmanship award was shared by Jenny Jarabek and Kim Zissler. Says Coach Jim Doran, "I've been coaching girls' soccer for five years, and this is definitely the most outstanding team I've had!"

With good attitudes and a lot of spirits the J.V. team turned out a great season. As Coach Norm Jones, who is a former player in Britain said, "they did an excellent job this year having a record of winning 7, losing 2, and tieing 1 game." Scott Roeder a right fullback for the team replied," it was a great season and we learned a lot." He also commented, "this year we lacked two things which were passing and making our shots."

Out of the 10 games, one in particular seems to stick out in everyone's mind and that is the second game against the Center Road rival Douglas MacArthur. Losing the first game against the Generals 1-0 didn't stop them from coming back and winning their second game with the Generals. Even with Joey Douglas' concussion during the first half, the Commanders came back to win the game 2-1. "Craig Morgan had a beautiful shot." replied Coach Jones. The other goal scored was made by Dave Hutchinson, the top scorer on the team."

The J.V. team has a two year record with Coach Jones of 15-3-1.

The Varsity soccer team ended their season with 12 wins, 4 loses, 2 ties. They were District Champs, beating Valley Lutheran 4-2, and defeating MacArthur 4-2. After Districts, they went on to play in the Regionals. The Commanders fought hard and won the first game against Ortonville 1-0, but it soon came to an end in their second game against Okemos 0-3.

"They achieved most of their goals" said Coach Hartle. He was very proud to have coached this year's team. He also commented, "we had an excellent season!"

Awards given to the players this year were: most valuable offense, Matt Maturen, the unanimous choice for the position; most valuable defense, Jeff Riedel; most improved player, Paul Manelis; and the sportsmanship trophy was awarded to Gary Gallagher.

Good Times And Fun Runs

In the spring, the Eisenhower Girls track team gets their OUT of shape bodies into shape. They gear themselves up and get ready to out run their opponents. Out run is indeed what they did. For what team they did have, they had a considerably good season. The season was also a very hot one. The team seemed to manage at the Flushing Invitational by building forts out of blankets to keep themselves from the dreadfully hot sun. The team was more two teams than one with separate coaches for distance and sprints and field events. The season ended with an outrageous pizza party at Olson Park. They played basketball, had water fights and ate lots of pizza.

Ike Thinclads OUTRUN MacArthur

Although it seemed as if the Eisenhower boys track team had a quite dismal season, boasting only a 1-6 record, in all reality the season held many positive aspects for the team.

In their first meet of the season, the team was OUTrun by 101 points (124-23) by Bay City John Glenn. In the following meet they were downed again by Bridgeport (97-39). The Eisenhower thinclads were victorious (74-62) over Douglas MacArthur, winning their first and only competition of the season in a close, well matched meet over their perennial hometown rivals. The remainder of the season turned up all losses as Eisenhower was defeated by Nouvel Catholic Central (96-41), Buena Vista (76-57), Mt. Pleasant (84-48) and Bay City Handy (98-38).

Despite these team scores, Eisenhower had many individual winners. As track is as much an individual sport as it is a team sport, improving oneself is the ultimate goal. Throughout the season, members of the team strived to improve their records and times. Many of them succeeded in doing so.

The talents of many individual members were displayed at the White Pine Conference meet. Joe Sanchez finished third in the 200 meter run qualifying himself for the State meet. John Wilson took second place in the discus, while Matt Hirschenberger tied for second place in the high jump. The 400 meter relay team consisting of Ron Austin, Phil Brefke, Joe Sanchez and Clifford Wicks also showed their ability by placing third at the White Pine Conference meet.

The Eisenhower Varsity Football team had an impressive 5-4 season overall, and 3-2 in the White Pine conference. The two conference losses were at home and both were lost in overtime.

The first loss of the season was against Douglas MacArthur in double overtime. After regulation time the score remained 0-0. The OT was run in a 4 down stanza starting form the 10 yard line, both squads failed to convert a field goal. The second OT placed MacArthur with a 3rd and 9 situation and they converted a touch down. A penalty resulted in Ike's drive starting at the 25 yard line and an interception ended the game.

The second loss was on OT loss against Bay City John Glenn. After a scoreless first half senior Ron Austin ran the kick-off back for an 85 yard touch down. John Glen came right back to tie it up at 7-7. The game remained scoreless until the overtime when John Glenn kicked a field goal to end the game.

On the lighter side of the season, three players made the All White Pine Conference Team: Greg Beyer (DE), Dave Douglas (LB), and Tony Jablonski (OT). Twelve players on the team received honorable mention. They were Dave Schuler (DT), Jeff Dilts (DT), Brett Hall (DB), Ron Austin (DB), Ken Bean (C), Mike Keyser (G), Matt Eurich (G), Scott Johnson (E), Mike Farrell (E), Dave Halstead (RB), Pete Garcia (RB), and Randy Kruska (QB).

The team voted Clifford Wicks the Most Improved player Pete Garcia received the Most Valuable Back award, and Tony Jablonski was named the Most Valuable Lineman. After weeks of practice and nine games, the awards and the rest were well deserved.

Clockwise Dave Halstead gets a pitch on and End Around. The bone crushing defense shows DM that "We're Tough Too." Senior Mike Farrell says "I won't spike this time." Last, Randy Kruska leads the offense into the next play.

A Promising Future

"Getting off on the right foot" is exactly what the Eisenhower J.V football team did. They began the season with a bang with a 12-0 shutout over Cadillac. "We started off the season the way that we wanted to", said first year coach Jim Bowen. Even though the final 2-6 record wasn't exactly what the Commanders wanted, statistics reveal a very successful season. Leading rusher Marc Thomas racked up an impressive 750 yards with Doug Bishop coming behind with 450. Co-Captain Mike Beyer's 300 yards passing was nothing to be over looked. Defensive records also indicate a fine season with leaders Casey Lewless with 75 tackles and assists and Todd Ludwig's 5 interceptions.

The Commanders delivered an overall exciting season highlighted by an 23 yard field goal against Nouvel and running a 65 yard kick-off back for a touchdown against Buena Vista. What a better way to end the season than to have a whole team of players cheering for lineman Keith Elwood run the ball, Greg Armstrong playing split end (a position he never played before), and Keith Keysor accepting a pass from his brother Kevin. Coach Bowen summed up the season well when he said" They never quit, they never gave up and they were a good, solid football team".

Winning games seemed to be a habit for this year's freshman football team. They had a better record than j.v. and varsity, even though coach Jim Geary came in after the season had already begun. With the new coach came a new style, which took a lot of reorganizing and learning. But the freshmen pulled through with an overall 7-2 record. The season wasn't all work. There were many fun times for the team. For instance, team members Eric Luplow and Art Welsh weren't watching what was going on during the Cadillac game and bumped into each other. They both landed flat on their backs and felt a little embarrassed to go back to the bench and explain to the coach what had happened. Also there had been a couple of practices where some team members ripped their practice pants. The season had been one to remember and most of the team members feel that next year will be even better.

Energy and Talent Aid Ike Tankers

Although the girl's swim team record this year was 6-6, they made up for the losses with their inexhaustible energy, cheerfulness, and hard work. Along with the veteran tankers on the team, there were newcomers; not only freshman but juniors also. One of these juniors, Jenny Sweeting, was asked what she thought of the team as a whole. She replied," They (the team) were very supportive and really helped me out with lots of advice and support." Why did she join? "'Well, I felt it was a real challenge, but the part I liked best was the fact that each time I competed, my time improved little by little! I guess I did it for myself.'"

Captain this year was Bridget McLaughlin and Co-Captain was Lori VanTol. Says Lori,'" The team this year was really great; we had so much talent! It was unbelievable!'"

Michelle LaManna gained the status of Ike's number one diver. Her hard work and competition paid off for her, because Michelle, along with Lori VanTol, Bridget McLaughlin, Debbie Turner, and Tracey Baxter went to the State Competition. Says Lori and Bridget about State, "We couldn't believe the competition there. It was really a challenge to try and beat them!

Says Bridget about the freshman, "The freshman this year were incredible! I couldn't believe their talent."

The swimmers are pretty happy with what they accomplished this year and are already looking forward to the 1987-1988 school year!

Individual Swimmers Highlight Season

The boys swim team faced many challenges this year. Due to the fire they were forced to share the MacArthur pool. Practices were held in the morning before school. At times the team practiced twice a day in order to better prepare for the big meets.

Three members of the team qualified for the State meet which was held March 13 and 14 at Eastern Michigan University University. Marc Thompson and Joey Douglas qualified in the 100 yard breaststroke. Keith Klein qualified for both the 100 yard backstroke and the 200 yard individual medley.

At the Tri-City championship meet many members of the team achieved personal best times. Coach Pat Welter said, "I thought we would do better but I was pleased with the individual times."

Sometimes winning isn't everything. This year's boy's swim team proved that. They didn't win many dual meets although individual swimmers excelled.

The swim team celebrates their victory.

Golfers Swing Their Way To State

Eisenhower Varsity golf team had a pretty impressive record during the 1986 season. The team was led to victory by seniors Mike Anderson, Tom Bowers, and John Schnepf. Fighting for the fourth and fifth positions were first year team members, Alex Card and Brian Dice, and second year team member, Dave Faerber. Rounding out and contributing to the team were juniors Jeff McInerney, Brent Tallon, Mark Yarmouth, and Senior Tom Kraynak.

The team entered five tournaments. During the season they took first place at Oscoda, Vassar and in the White Pine Tournament, and they also finished second in the Regionals at Alma.

Setting two records, Mike Anderson scored an outstanding 69 in the White Pine Conference Tournament, and he and Tom Bowers had a combined score of 69 at the Vassar Invitational. At the Oscoda Invitational, Anderson scored an astonishing 71, and the team took first place in that tournament. Anderson was a medalist eight times and finished third in the State Finals. Alex Card and John Schnepf were also medalists once.

Although the 1986 season wasn't highlighted by perfect weather, Ike's Junior Varsity Golf Team ended their exciting season by setting a new school record of nine wins and one loss. The accomplishments of the team this year show that good teams are in store for the future, The person with the lowest (best) average score of 43 was George Drapp. Impressively, he shot 38 for the lowest score of the season. Drapp was also a medalist (person receiving the lowest score in a match) four times as was Adam Demetriou four times and Jeff Card once.

Raining and flooding made this season somewhat more challenging than past seasons. The team felt that they should add waders to their list of standard equipment to combat the poor weather conditions, however, that plan fell through. Nevertheless, their season proved to be quite successful. Coach John Karam remarked about the season, "It's always fun coaching when you've got a good group of people to work with and this year's performance certainly proves it".

Other interests and lack of enthusiasm caused many players to quit the hockey team this year, but the remaining players pulled through. The main highlight of the season was the 6-5 victory over top-rated Nouvel. Top senior scorer Tom Bowers and the eight seniors displayed their hockey skills while top team scorer Bob Vargas and the others perfected theirs. Although the season record wasn't impressive, the team effort was outstanding.

THE VARSITY SPIKERS

The Varsity spIKErs had a fairly good season this year considering it was a young team, with only two starting players remaining. It was a rebuilding year for the spikers. Starting a whole new team isn't easy, but they managed. They worked together and pushed their whole season and made it work. The most OUTstanding games of the season were against MacArthur. They were both very close all the way through, but MacArthur always seemed to get the winning point. The spIKErs were very impressed with their performances in both games. They tried their best and were proud even though they did not win.

The team had alot of fun times through the season. The tournaments were the best. And one that stood OUT very much in the season was the Laker tournament. They pushed all day and finally got to play Lakers, the team that has always won the tournament in the past. They were so pumped up and ready to play and play they did. They smashed the Lakers right into the floor. They won the first game and had a gigantic lead, but the Lakers came back and won the second game. Eisenhower was still happy to beat them in atleast one of the two games.

The Varsity spIKErs had a great time working together and accomplishing all that they did.

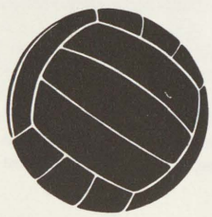
Coach Chris Bertie, Shyelle Musulin and Shelly Maturen return to the bench after a time out.

Liz Vondette and Nikki Boyer reach high for a block.



The J.V. Volleyball team had a very tough season this year. "With no permanent gym to practice in, it was hard to get all the practice needed." said freshmen Shannon Savage.

It was another year of rebuilding for the team. With only three returning players from the previous year, many new faces with good talent were seen out on the court.

The team was led by sophomore Co-captains Nikki Boyer and Donna Koski. Donna was moved up to varsity mid-way through the season to start her training for setting next year. Also, sophomore Shelly Maturen and freshman Kim Brefka starting practicing with varsity.

Coach Chris Bertie said that she could not imagine how far the team could have gone if they had a more consistent practice schuedule.

Racers Ski to County Championship

Long bus rides, frigid weather, icy slopes, tight courses, and an occasional D.Q. are some of the drawbacks of being a member of the Eisenhower ski team. But when the sun is shining brightly on the white fluffy snow, you're meeting rowdy people on the hills and you're finishing with the best time you've ever had, you're pretty glad to be a part of such a team. "It's not like it used to be. We really take it seriously," said senior Mike Keyser during mid-season. Members of the ski team agreed that the hard work in practices paid off at the meets. As sophomores, juniors, and seniors Mike Keyser and Dave Douglas were the #1 skiiers for the team. Their last year really paid off with the help of seniors Gordon Williams and Michelle Kelly. Competition between members of the team was tight this year. When a team has so many talented skiiers one is bound to see results at a meet. The team will be losing some valuable skiiers next year but juniors Pete Freigang, Steve Palmateer, Charlie Perkins, and Mark Mueller (to name a few) will each continue to be an asset to the Eisenhower ski team. With a young team coach Dick Williams can look forward to another good season. The girls team will continue to get better with Sue Perkins, Jenny Newberry, and Jenny Gronski returning to the team next year.

The boys ski team beat all teams in the Apple Mt. Ski Area. The girls were consistently getting better throughout the season. The boys came out 5th and the girls 7th in the Mt. Holly Divisional Ski Meet.

The 1986-1987 ski team was full of fast, strong racers and their great season was not the work of a few, but the work of a team.

Ike Grapplers paced by "Fantastic Foursome"

IKE'S Fantastic Foursome: Jeff Riedel, Marc Thomas, Ted Kurtz, P J Miles

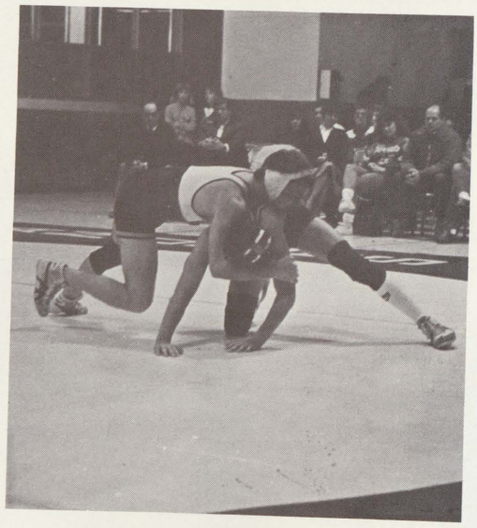
Despite the fact that Eisenhower's grapplers had no place to practice, they came through with good spirits, a lot of dedication, and became one of the areas best teams.

The team was led by Jeff Riedel, P J Miles, Ted Kurtz, and Marc Thomas. They all have high hopes of reaching the state finals by their Senior year.

When the grapplers aren't competing with others, they are busy competing against themselves. "It is really tough setting your mind to maintain your weight" says Ted Kurtz. "It really takes a lot out of you when you have to starve yourself for two days because of the pizza you ate last night" adds Co-Captain P.J. Miles.

Co-Captain Jeff Reidel is following his older brother Mark's footsteps by becoming one of IKE's most Valuable wrestlers. It's certain that Freshman, "Twig", Mike Riedel will be as promising as his brothers, Jeff and Mark.

P.J. Miles continues his streak towards 100 victories.



Marc Thomas gains control.

Lack Of Depth Slows Harrier

It takes courage and dedication to practice and compete when you know you're going to lose. The lack of depth doomed the Ike Harriers to defeat. Although they were basically a strong team, they did not hace the required number of runners to win a meet.

Coach Dave Herndon considered this season a rebuilding period. He said "it was a very frustrating season." Kathy Dunbar, the only girl on the team this year, was injured at the beginning of the season. Bill Lucas was also sidelined by a dislocated ankle, missing his second straight Regional competition in two years. This did not stop the Commanders from advancing Dennis LaClair and Wayne King onto State competition on November 1st.

Although the team did not do well as a whole, the individual scores were very good, The best times of the year are as follows: Dennis LaClair, 17:39.3, Wayne King, 17:00.8; Bill Lucas, 19:25.8; Mike Harper, 18:54.7; Mark Przybylski, 22:56; Chad Jaski, 24:09; and Kath Dunbar, 26:07. Their overall standings were 2-3-1.

All good things must end, even a good race.

Cross Country team members are: Kneeling, Mark Pryzybylski and Kathy Dunbar. Standing: Coach Dave Herndon, Bill Lucas, Dennis LaClair, Wayne King, Mike Harper.

Check Your Sign and a

ARIES March 21-April 20

Control your bad temper and live with cheer. With your strong confidence, you'll reach all your goals for the coming year.

VIRGO August 24-September 23

Try to stop noticing all your friends' flaws; then a fight won't happen that you started to cause. Try to be more social at gatherings, and you won't feel the pain that loneliness brings.

TAURUS April 21-May 21

Watch your stubborness with family and friends because this could make some of your relationships come to their ends. But because of the patience you're willing to lend you'll always be a very good friend.

GEMINI May 22-June 21

Although Geminis hate a boring daily routine, try to stay away from changing your scene. Though Geminis are known for changing their moods, I think most of them are total dudes.

LEO July 24-August 23

Leo is a born leader, so bashfulness and fears, the Leo has neither. Because you always strive for attention, make sure you get a lot of affection, cause when Leos live without these feelings, their tempers really hit the ceilings.

CANCER June 22-July 23

Because you're a Cancer, we don't mention how we've noticed that you live attention. You usually know what's on people's minds and have a lot of feelings you keep deep inside. Cancer, for you I have one suggestion; open up to friends with your affection.

rhyme you will find

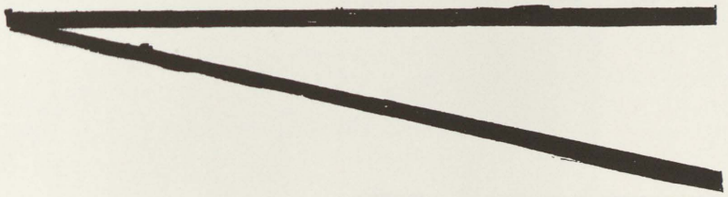
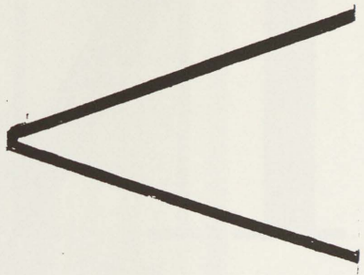
LIBRA September 24-October 23

Giving advice is what you like to do but people can't tell if you're happy or blue. Control you moods and the way they change and happiness will easily be arranged.



SCORPIO October 24-November 22

Throughout the year make it clear what you want and what you fear. Don't keep your feelings locked inside. If you fail with something just remember you tried.

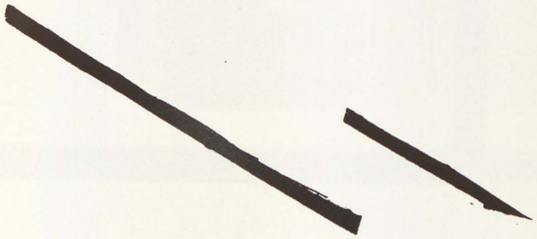


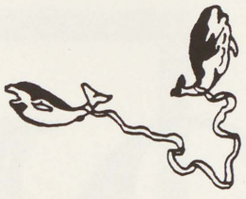
CAPRICORN December 22-January 20

Capricorn has a lot of ambition; they love to be in competition. If you dedicate yourself to being the best you'll pull ahead of all the rest.

SAGITTARIUS November 23-December 21

Most Sagittarians are total clowns and you'll rarely ever see them down. If a Sagittarian sees a person frown he'll try to turn it up side down. Their clumsiness and love for attention makes them the funniest people in town.





PISCES February 20-March 20

You send a lot of time helping others and seem to think you're everyone's mother. You hide your emotions due to fear and use a smile to hide a tear. Most of all you strive for affections and are fun loving without any intention.

AQUARIUS January 21-February 19

To many people it always seems that you're living in a dream. You don't like to be tied down with only one girl or guy. You feel they should get a try. You always try your best to be free; a married person you'll probably never be.

It's Teamwork That Counts

Whether you are on the football field, the ball diamond or in an operating room, teamwork makes the difference. At St. Mary's Hospital our staff members work as a team to provide the very best health care services possible. Think about it. A ball team wins when the players work together. A patient wins when the hospital staff combine their efforts in providing care.

Teamwork. At St. Mary's Hospital, it is "just what the doctor ordered."

A SIGN OF THE TIMES

INACOMP is the one sign that gives you the best direction when it comes to choosing a computer service.

Buying a computer can be an exciting experience, but it's not something you want to do too often. You need clear visibility in selecting one that meets your current needs, yet offers long range capabilities. The PROFESSIONALS at INACOMP will steer you in the right direction by explaining features and functions in terms you can relate to.

INACOMP Computer Centers give you the green light when it comes to feeling confident about your computer purchase. You get service after the sale, from educational to financial to technical, and it's service you can count on. So, when it comes to getting the best deal on a computer, follow the signs to INACOMP.
